

THE ANDOVER TOWNSMAN

Memorial Hall 2 copies No. 63

Andover everywhere and always, first, last—the manly, straightforward, sober, patriotic New England Town—PHILLIPS BROOKS.

$2.00 PER YEAR.

ANDOVER, MASSACHUSETTS, AUGUST 21, 1903

VOL. XVI. NO. 45

BICKNELL
BROS.
CORNER.

FALL AND WINTER STYLES

HATS ALL IN

BICKNELL BROS' X L, $3 Light weight and self conforming.
STETSON'S, $3.50 Equal to any $6 Hat in the market.
LAMSON & HUBBARD, $3 Always a seller YOUNG'S N. Y. HAT, $3 A favorite with many.
GUYER'S, $3 None better at this price.
BICKNELL BROS' SPECIAL, $2 The best $2 hat in Lawrence.
SUFFOLK DERBY, $2 Always popular.

Delay means nothing different for styles and it means broken sizes.

MORAL—BUY NOW.

BICKNELL BROS.'

CALL ON.....

P. J. HANNON

Andover's Leading Tailor and Outfitter.

When in need of a new suit or overcoat.

A VACATION

YOUR .. BEST INTERESTS

KODAK

is a vacation wasted. Don't waste your vacation. I have the Kodaks.
ALL PRICES.

a served by placing your insurance in competent hands.

H. F. CHASE

MERRIMACK

INSURANCE

Houses To Rent and For Sale
House Lots For Sale.
Property Cared For.

GEO. A. PARKER,

BEST COMPANIES,

LOWEST RATES

REAL ESTATE

NOTARY PUBLIC

33 MAIN STREET, ANDOVER

Tel. 108-12

Wood and Coal
Hay and Straw

At Wholesale or Retail ...Prices

FRANK E. GLEASON,

.....Successor to John Cornell

DON'T FAIL to have our Teams bring to your House at least one Load of

MILL KINDLINGS AT $1.00

We sell Prepared Wood of all kinds for kindling and open fire places. Trash wood $1.25 per load. The very best grade of Hard and Soft Coal, for domestic and manufacturing uses.

Yards on Railroad St. and Park St.

OFFICE MAIN STREET

ANDOVER MASS

You Can Burn Wood or Soft Coal

in your Heater by attaching a

FOWLER AUTOMATIC DRAFT REGULATOR.

to the smoke pipe. No Overheating of Furnaces. Retention of Heat in the Boiler. Less Clinkers in the Furnace. Regular Draft at all times. A boiler will keep cleaner with less care.

You Can Save 20 to 30 Per Cent.

in Heat and Fuel. For sale by

Wm. H. Welch & Co.
Andover, Mass.

Mountain Spring
Creamery

BUTTER

we receive this butter

DIRECT FROM THE CREAM-ERY EVERY THURSDAY.

Half pound prints wrapped in parchment paper, especially desirable during the summer months.

5lb. BOXES,
20lb. and 30lb. TUBS.

Currier & Campion Co.,
ANDOVER & LAWRENCE

JEWELRY REPAIRING

of all kinds promptly finished
We have Factory Experience. Old Jewelry made over.

TRY US ONCE.

DANIEL SILVER,
553 Essex Street,
LAWRENCE

LOCAL NEWS.

If you see it in the Townsman, it's news to be relied upon; if it is news and so, you'll see it in the Townsman.

Mrs. Winslow and family are to remove to Shirley, Mass. next week.

The Unions will play the Tewksbury Doctors in Tewksbury, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. F. E. Gleason spent Wednesday and Thursday at her home on High street.

E. Kendall Jenkins and family of School street, are at their cottage, Juniper Point, Salem, Mass.

Mrs. William Higgins and Masters
William and Loring Higgins have returned from a short trip to Gloucester.

H. C. Hitchcock & Co., have put up a new sign indicating the route to their workshop on High street.

The public schools will open Sept. 8th, the day after Labor Day, instead of the first Monday after Labor Day.

Alexander Brown and Joseph Mc-Carthy leave tomorrow for New York to attend the remainder of the Yacht races.

People wishing to see Superintendent Palmer are likely to hereafter find him at his office most any time during the day.

Lester Hilton, pitcher for the Unions, pitched a winning game for the Andovers against the Becons of Lawrence, last Saturday.

Ed. Doherty, who has been staying at his home in Andover lately, was "in the box" for the Pittsburgs last Saturday against the Bostons.

Miss Affleck, book keeper for Currier & Campion, has returned from a six weeks' vacation at Mt. Stuart, Prince Edwards Island, where her home is.

The Andover base ball nine will play the Olympia A. C. of Haverhill, Saturday afternoon on the Phillips Academy campus. The game will be called at three o'clock.

Supt Lovejoy had crushed stone spread over part of Pearson street, yesterday, and then had it rolled by the steam road roller, leaving that part of the street in excellent condition.

The household furniture of Carl Lindquist, who has gone to New York, will be sold at public auction by B. Rogers, Saturday, August 29th, at 2 o'clock at
No. 10 Maple Ave.

Miss Blanche S. Jacobs of West Roxbury, who has been a teacher in Needham, and who is to teach English at Punchard next year, is in town and will live in the Ramsdell house on Whittier street.

There will be a game of cricket tomorrow afternoon on the local green between the employees of the Tyler Rubber company and Smith & Dove's mill. This promises to be a very good game as there are some good players in each factory.

The young Andovers will play the Elms next Saturday, early in the afternoon on the Phillips Academy grounds.
There is a rivalry between these two teams and there is a series of games scheduled between them, of which one has been played; that one being won by the Young Andovers.

Charles and Arthur Morse, George Dunnels, Charles Fealson, of the Andover Fire department, and Samuel Newman and William Shapleigh attended the Fireman's Muster in Salem yesterday.
L. A. Dane who belongs to the Lawrence company attended with his division. The play was won by Marblehead with a distance of 220 ft. 8 1/4 inches.

William H. Welch has secured the contract for plumbing and heating the Winslow Farm, Shirley, Mass., also the contracts for plumbing and heating the new house on the farm of P. J. Hannon, and the house of William H. Jowett on High street. The first of these is a very large contract. Mr. Welch will have men working in Exeter, Rye Beach and Shirley, next week.

Twenty Years of Service.

Last Sunday at the South church, Oliver Vennard was the surprised recipient of a liberal purse, presented to him by George A. Parker in behalf of the members of the congregation of the church, as a token of their appreciation of his faithful services of the last twenty years as sexton of the South church.

The Haverhill and Andover tracks have been graded properly for a greater portion of the distance that they run in this town. Where crushed stone was used a finer grade has been used for top dressing and where gravel is used a filling of similar material freed from large stones has been put in.

DYSENTERY CURED WITHOUT THE AID OF A DOCTOR.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux," (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by E. M. & W. A. Allen.

Summer Saunterers.

James Feeney is back from his vacation.

Mrs. W. S. Jenkins of Main street is in Gloucester.

Miss Ethel Brownell is staying at the Point of Pines.

Miss S. Lizzie Bodwell of Salem is visiting relatives in town.

George T. Abbott of the Andover Post office, is taking his vacation.

Miss Kate Jenkins of Main street is at
"The Grand," Mt. Vernon, N.H.

Mrs. C. C. Blunt has been visiting friends in Lowell this week.

Martin Kaufman and family have returned from Old Orchard beach.

Col. Woodward, president of the Reading line was in town Monday on business.

Charles Riddock, clerk at the Tyler Rubber Co's office is enjoying his vacation.

David Burns and John Killackey have been spending a week at Old Orchard beach.

George Saunders and family of High street, are spending two weeks in New Hampshire.

Timothy Shields started Tuesday on a short vacation to be spent at Old Orchard beach.

William C. Crowley of Bliss' Drug Store has been taking his vacation the past week.

Frank Foster and family, of Summer street, are spending the month of August at Wellfleet.

Miss Winnifred Poor of Lowell, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs.
Joseph W. Poor.

J. J. Driscoll of Harding street is passing a few days at Hampton beach with Lawrence friends.

Mrs. Richard Hitchen and daughter, Sarah, have been passing the week in Providence, R. I.

Miss Almira Lang, who has been spending the past two months at New Hampshire, has returned.

Miss Alice Morse who has been visiting friends in Weymouth for several weeks, has returned home.

J. A. Burt and family and Mrs. Newton Jaquith and family have gone to York beach for their vacations.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Poor, of Waltham, were visiting their relatives on Poor street, Saturday and Sunday.

John W. Richardson and family have returned from Nahant Beach, where they have been enjoying the summer.

Arthur Jackson, clerk at T. A. Holt, & Co.'s left last Saturday for Halifax,
N. S., where he will pass his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hitchcock of Appleton, Wis., visited at the home of the former's brother, E. V. N. Hitchcock, last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. E. A. Higgins, Miss Bertha and Miss Grace Higgins, Miss Lila Gleason and C. B. Abbott of New York are visiting on the Maine coast.

Mrs. S. A. Harris and daughter of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, are visiting at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R.
P. Whitten, on Elm street.

Miss Dorothy Paradise, daughter of Rev. Frank Paradise, an old student of Phillips Academy, is visiting her cousin
Miss Marion Barnard of High street.

Herbert Wright, who for some time past has been employed at Granville, Vt., by L. W. Farnham, the contractor, is at his home in this town for a short stay.

Dan Hilton of High street, has returned from a two weeks' vacation trip via International Steamship Co. to Nova Scotia. He visited Digby and other places.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Carpenter Falls from Roof of House This Morning, and Has a Miraculous Escape.

Daniel Teureton, a carpenter of North Andover, who was working on Mr. Chapman's new house on Main street, fell 35 feet from a staging, this morning, landing on his feet and then falling on some bricks which were lying under the staging, narrowly escaped instant death.
The injured man was taken into Chapman's and Dr. Leitch was called, who, after making an examination, said that unless injured internally the man would recover. No bones were broken.
A carriage from Higgins' stables was telephoned for, and the carpenter was taken to his home opposite Mrs. Carter's on the Highland road.

Fr. Locke is taking a vacation.

George Dunnels of Farmer's fish market is taking his vacation.

Miss Flora Lindsay is visiting Miss Elizabeth Clement in Westville, N. H.

Miss Alice Kimball of Haverhill spent Tuesday with Miss Flora Lindsay on Summer street.

Miss Mabel Lawson of the Andover Press has gone to Buffalo, N. Y., for the remainder of the summer.

William Grosvenor, Wm. Hackett and Phil. Cheever, have been camping at Foster's Pond, for the last week.

Mrs. Richard Major and her grandchild, Hazel M. Bickford have gone to Winthrop beach for an outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eaton of Salem spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dana Chase of Whittier street.

Hospital Steward F. W. Breck, of the U.S.S. Prairie, paid a short visit to his nephew, G. S. Breck, on Sunday last.

Masters Frederic and Archibald Tyler have returned to their home in Andover after a very pleasant visit with relatives in Duxbury.

Mrs. Annie Serio of Boston is spending a few weeks at the home of her brother-in-law, Daniel Michilini on Pearson street.

Mrs. H. E. Noyes and daughter, Miss Edna Noyes of Charlestown, have been spending a few days with the former's son, Harry H. Noyes, on High street.

Miss Lucy C. Mason, book-keeper at Valpey Bros' market, and Miss Nellie H.
Farmer of the Andover Press office, are spending a week at Hotel Mitchell, York Beach, Me.

Miss S. E. Witherell and Miss Ames of Boston, and Mrs. Mortimer and Miss Holt of Baltimore, Md., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Abbott, on Central street.

Mrs. Tripp, with her three children left Saturday, for their home in New York, after spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Mc-Cloud, of Poor street, Frye Village.

Thos. Hay of the Andover Press has gone to Center Sandwich, N. H., for a two weeks' vacation. Mr. Hay is an expert with the tennis racket and it is expected that he will "trim" some of the finest players at that popular summer resort.

Fred Cheever, Robert Hill, George Simpson and Ray Pearson, have been camping on the Shawheen river, in Tewksbury, returning Saturday. During the week several of their friends went to visit them, and on Wednesday a few young ladies spent the day in camp.

Grange Field Day.

Andover Grange is planning an outing for next Tuesday that promises to be most enjoyable for the members. Starting from the hall in West Parish at 9.30 a.m., they will make a tour of West Parish farms, seeing "how it is done" at many of the best farms in Andover, including the famous Hood farm. Dinner will be served at Edw. W. Bontwell's and supper at E. W. Burt's. It is hoped that a large number may be in the party.

200 PAIR

MEN'S

ALL-WOOL

PANTS

$2.50 PAIR

W. H. Gile & Co.

Lawrence Progressive Clothiers

W. A. MORTON, DECORATOR HAVERHILL

is prepared to take orders for

...Interior Decorating and Painting...

Andover people are well acquainted with Mr. Morton's work through the decorations of Memorial Hall, Phillips Academy, Andover Theological Seminary, Masonic Hall, Bank building and private residences. Town hall now in process of decoration. Address

10 Columbia Park, Haverhill

THE LARGER FOOT.

Is It This Shoe Salesman's Theory Fits Your Case?

"The question of which foot to fit first is an important one to us," said the shoe salesman. "It may seem strange to you, but it is rarely that we do not experience some trouble in fitting the foot while the other is easily covered. A popular belief obtains that the left foot of every person is the hardest to fit, and consequently many shoe clerks always try a shoe on that foot first. It is not true, however, according to my observation, that there is any inflexible rule as to which foot to try first. It is true, nevertheless, that in a majority of cases if you succeed in fitting the left foot you will have no trouble with the right. My practice is to try both feet before I pronounce a pair of shoes a perfect fit. Then I am sure of avoiding any mistake growing out of peculiarities of foot formation. No two persons have feet formed exactly alike, and the shoe salesman who thinks so and is governed accordingly will meet with many complaints.

"For some time I pondered over the problem of fitting shoes to feet, and especially as to why the left foot should be considered the standard by which to be governed. The only rational theory I have ever been able to evolve is a very simple one when you come to consider it. Nine out of ten persons you meet are right handed, as we say. About one person in ten, or perhaps the per cent is even less than that, uses his left hand. If you will observe persons who use the right hand when they are standing and talking, they invariably rest their weight on the left foot. And vice versa, a left handed person will rest his or her weight on the right foot. The result is that with right handed persons the left foot is probably a fraction larger than the right foot, and the shoe clerk must inevitably find this to be a fact sooner or later."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

ROMANCE IN VARIED GUISE.

Definition of the Word is Susceptible of Wide Diversification.

What is romance? Even the colloquial use of the term is varied. When we say "you are romantic" or call anything romantic as distinguished from what is real or what is true we mean one thing, but quite another when we apply the term romantic to natural scenery. And in this application we must distinguish between the effect upon us of that which we call romantic because of human associations with certain sights or sounds and that wildness of nature which we call romantic because of its absolute dissociation from anything human.

Keeping out of mind the use of the word in artistic and literary criticism, let us try to find what element of recollection there is in the diversities of colloquial usage. In all that is generally called romantic in the cases above mentioned there is the common element of strangeness. We easily revert to what must have been the original sense of the word in its connection with those medieval modifications of the Latin tongue known as the romance languages. The Saxon or Celt would have found his native tongue sufficient for all ordinary needs, but if he caught the Roman air in any way, by travel or refinement of taste and habit, he would, to meet the newly developed need, borrow the graces of the Roman speech—that is, he would romance.—Harper's Magazine.

Rockefeller and the Bungs.

In former years John D. Rockefeller's supervision of Standard Oil company affairs took in even the smallest detail. On one occasion, according to Ida M. Tarbell in McClure's, commenting on a monthly statement, he called a referee's attention to a discrepancy in regard to bungs, articles worth about as much in a refinery as pins are in a household. "Last month," he said to the subordinate official concerned, "you reported on hand 1,119 bungs. Ten thousand were sent you at the beginning of this month. You have used 9,527 this month. You report 1,012 on hand. What has become of the other 580?" Apparently Mr. Rockefeller's idea was: Take care of the bungs and the barrels will take care of themselves.

The Mistress' Character.

The London Globe prints a "character" which an English servant leaving kindly gave her mistress. "In answer to your letter, it's not a bad place; the Mrs. understands her duties, and is alive and obliging, but troubles about getting up early in the mornings. There is plenty, and if you don't mind a place where only one other young lady is kept besides yourself, you might give them a month's trial. I like more society, which is why I am leaving."

His Narrow Logic.

"If I had my way," said the man of high principles, "there would be no money in politics."

"But," said Senator Sorghum, "if you didn't put any money in politics it isn't likely you could have your way."—Washington Star.

The Judgment of Years.

A significant bit of wisdom, to be pondered over by the very young, whose griefs and disappointments seem so tragic, was that uttered by Mrs. Dolly Madison when she was over eighty years old and near her death. "Her life had been fortunate and beautiful not only because circumstances had proved kind to her, but from the brightness and buoyancy of her temperament.

She harbored no bitterness over past experiences, but life had taught her the unimportance of most trials which loom so gigantic in approaching. Not long before her death one of her nieces went to her for sympathy in some slight trouble.

"My dear," she said, "do not trouble about it. There is nothing in this world really worth caring for. Yes," she repeated, looking intently out of a window, "I who have lived so long repeat to you that there is nothing in this world below really worth caring for."

Buttons.

The Elizabethan era gave vogue to the button and the buttonhole, two inventions which may fairly be regarded as important, since they did much to revolutionize dress. The original button was wholly a product of needlework, which was soon improved by the use of a wooden mold. The brass button is said to have been introduced by a Birmingham merchant in 1689. It took 200 years to improve on the method of sewing the cloth upon the covered button. Then an ingenious Dane hit upon the idea of making the button in two parts and clamping them together, with the cloth between. Buttons are now made of almost everything, from seaweed and cattle hoofs to mother of pearl and vegetable ivory. Excellent buttons are made from potatoes, which, treated chemically, become as hard as ivory.—Boston Transcript.

His Businesslike Way.

Young Mr. Bizz (briskly, to fair proprietor of the photograph gallery)—I've dropped in, Miss Frame, without much preparation, in the style I usually do when I make up my mind I want anything. Can you take me just as I am? Miss Frame—Certainly, Mr. Bizz. What style do you wish—cabinet or carte? Mr. Bizz—What style? Great Caesar! Did you think I'd come with these clothes on to have my photograph taken? I'm asking you to marry me, Miss Frame.

His Tide of Fortune.

"There is a tide in the affairs of men," said the man who habitually quotes Shakespeare, "which, taken at its flood, leads on to fortune." "Yes," replied the man who had married an heiress, "I remember the tide that led to my fortune well." "What tide was that?" "It was eventide, and we were sitting in the garden."—San Francisco Wasp.

Conspicuous.

"You have been conspicuous in the halls of legislation, have you not?" said the young woman who asks all sorts of questions. "Yes, miss," answered Senator Sorghum blandly, "I think I have participated in some of the richest baubles that legislation ever made."—Washington Star.

Jesting at Sears.

Upgardson—I was sorry to hear that Skinnerhorn had the smallpox. Did it disfigure him much? Atom—Disfigure him? No; it improved him. It changed his expression.—Chicago Tribune.

Piano Lyric.

"Professor, I know a man who says he can tell by the impression on his mind when his wife wants him to come home to dinner. Is it telepathy?" "Not at all, miss. It is called that mendacity."—Exchange.

An Ingenue.

Miss Boston—Ah, yes; your verses are charming. And have you never written a novel? Miss New York—No; for if I did my mother would never let me read it. Life.

Some people who jump at conclusions lose sight of the hurdles.—Philadelphia Record.

We like best to call

SCOTT'S EMULSION

a food because it stands so emphatically for perfect nutrition. And yet in the matter of restoring appetite, of giving new strength to the tissues, especially to the nerves, its action is that of a medicine.

Send for free sample. SCOTT & BROWN, Chemists, 409-415 Pearl Street, New York. See and ask for it. All druggists.

LIFE IN ENGLISH VILLAGES.

It is Not the Idyllic Form That Poets Sing About.

"I know a village where there are no fewer than thirty cottages with but one bedroom apiece, and in each of these single bedrooms six, seven and more people are sleeping," says A. Montefiore-Bruce, writing in the London Mail about life in the average English village. "In one of them, father, mother and eight children huddled together. In another, father, mother and six children—three of whom are grown up—are sleeping. In these cottages there is one living room downstairs and no sanitary arrangement of any kind. At the back of the cottages runs an open ditch. It is also an open sewer. "Here, in the very heart of the country, I expect to find abundance of pure water, abundance of sweet air. Too often I find neither about the cottages. Hundreds of villages have no water supply, though a comparatively small expenditure could provide it. I know a village—it is typical of hundreds—where the cottagers have to go half a mile to get water. A foul ditch furnishes another village with the whole of its water supply. Offensive refuse heaps lie piled round the crumbling walls of the cottages. The wooden floors within are rotten with sewage. "Norfolk, Suffolk and Essex contain many such villages, and other counties—such as Bedford, Cambridgeshire, Wiltshire, Dorset, Somerset—easily vie with them. I could write of lonely cottages far across the fields, with no water within a mile, whence the children, morning after morning walk two miles to school, and drag their tired limbs that distance back again at night—and this whatever the weather; where the postal service comes but once a week; where the men and boys walk daily five or six miles to and from work; where of drainage there is none; where of the simplest sanitation there is none; where the medical officer of health comes not, and where the inspector of nuisances is unknown."

MEXICAN CUSTOMS.

Female friends kiss on both cheeks when greeting or taking leave. Gentlemen speak first when passing lady acquaintances on the street. When a Mexican speaks to you of his home he refers to it as "your house." The sofa is the seat of honor, and a guest waits to be invited to occupy it. Men and women in the same social circles call each other by their first names. Mexican gentlemen remove their hats as respectfully upon entering a business office as in a private residence. Dinner calls are not customary, but upon rising from the table the guest thanks his host for the entertainment. After a dance the gentleman returns his partner to her seat beside her parents or chaperon and at once leaves her side. The fashionable call of a few minutes is unknown. A lady who arrives at 4 o'clock will remain until 6 or 7. The calls of intimate friends are half day visits.

Her Little Joke.

They were in the studio. Artists' trappings and holocaust paraphernalia were placed about the room with studied carelessness. Heavy tapestries and portieres choked the walls. Costly statuary, medieval firebrams, pendants, yataghans and priceless and historic armor were ranged idly about the room. Seated on a heavily upholstered divan, eyeing the American heiress at work on an intricate landscape, was the duke.

"Bah, Jove!" he ejaculated suddenly. "Do you know, Miss Millyins, I'm wrapped up in you and—"

"Huh!" interrupted the wealthy maiden with Yankee sarcasm. "I don't see why you should be wrapped up. I haven't bought you yet."

The duke sat dumfounded, wondering what there was in her remark to cause a smile to break out over her sweet visage.—New York Times.

Monkey and Parrot in Brazil.

In Brazil monkeys and parrots have interests in common. They not only roost in the same trees, but work for mutual benefit. The monkeys cannot easily pick the big Brazil nut husks from the trees, so the parrots gnaw them loose, allowing them to drop, the fall to the ground splitting them. Then the monkeys tear the cracked husks asunder, gather the nuts and divide them with the parrots. Sometimes, when the husks fail to split, the monkeys carry them up to the highest limbs of the tree and let them drop again. Monkey and parrot enjoy their harvest side by side.

Rivals in Misfortune.

People are very often proud of the properties to which they are heirs, but surely few landed estates are so vaunted, few castles are so boasted about, as are the hills to which the flesh is heir. Human nature fairly revels in its misfortunes, and this revelry leads to rivalry and to many complications. None is so proud, none is so jealous, as your traveling invalid.—London Queen.

A Good Reason.

Mrs. Greene—What do you have an alarm clock in your chamber for if you don't have the alarm wound up? Mrs. Gray—If you could have heard the awful things my husband said when the alarm went off, you wouldn't ask me.—Boston Transcript.

Do as They Please.

Dick—Those folks next door have an awful good time. Dora—How? Dick—Oh, they don't have to go anywhere, and they don't entertain. Exchange.

Rivals in Misfortune.

People are very often proud of the properties to which they are heirs, but surely few landed estates are so vaunted, few castles are so boasted about, as are the hills to which the flesh is heir. Human nature fairly revels in its misfortunes, and this revelry leads to rivalry and to many complications. None is so proud, none is so jealous, as your traveling invalid.—London Queen.

A Stamp Wasted.

Pettishly she stamped her foot. They were standing on the corner. He had offended her in some way. Again she stamped her foot. "Well," he said slowly, "there is a letter box, but you must know you can't drop your foot in it. You are simply wasting postage."—Judge.

Revenge is a kind of wild justice

which the more man's nature runs to the more ought law to weed it out.—Bacon.

EMERSON'S PROSE STYLE.

Held to Be Lacking in the Quality of Writers Called Masters.

What shall be said of Emerson's prose? Was Matthew Arnold right when, as an experienced critic calmly judging the favorite author of his youth, he denied that the "Essays," the lectures and "English Traits" formed a body of prose of sufficient merit to entitle Emerson to be ranked as a great man of letters? It seems as if the time had come for Emerson's countrymen frankly to accept this verdict. Because of deficiencies, both of style and of romance, Emerson does not belong to the small class of the great masters of prose. His style, despite the fact that "Nature" and many of the essays contain pages of eloquent prose almost equal in power and beauty to noble poetry, was nearly always that of the lecturer or preacher rather than that of the writer. He too frequently lost the note of distinction and was content if he satisfied his far from exigent audiences. In diction, to be sure, he was a conscious and consummate master, and it need scarcely be said that few writers have surpassed him in the ability to compose a pregnant sentence. But, as is generally admitted and as is shown by his practice of piecing his notes together, he was rarely able to evolve a paragraph, much more a whole essay, in a masterly or even in a workmanlike fashion. It may be granted that critics have overemphasized his lack of coherence, that there is more logical unity in his essays than appears on first reading, that "English Traits" and the later volumes are far from being mere strings of "orphan sayings," but the fact seems to remain that the prose style of Emerson from first to last lacks the firmness, the compass, the precision, the flexibility, the individuality we demand of the prose writers whom we denominate masters.—Professor Trent in Bookman.

MIGHTY TREES OF SIERRA.

Greatest in Size of All Creations of the Living World.

During all the ages nature has favored the growth of forests on the Pacific mountains, providing the peculiar conditions which make them far different from, greater in size, more luxuriant, than any other in the world. Of all the creations of the living world none is so great in size, so majestic in presence, as the mighty trees of the Sierra and the Cascades. For here the air is always fertile with moisture, clouds blown in from the Pacific ocean rest among the mountain summits, even crowning the tops of the trees themselves, and here discharge their rain. The soil is deep and spongy with centuries of decomposing vegetable matter, furnishing an unequalled nurturing place for vegetation, and there are no extremes of heat in summer or depths of cold in winter, says the Century Magazine.

Every condition has been favorable to unexampled exuberance of growth not only of the largest trees, but of all manner of undergrowth, vine, shrub and brake. A huge tree falls, decays and is yellowed with thick moss. Immediately scores of young fir and cedars spring up along the top of it—the first chance of a bare spot in the wood. Old burned stumps, gathering soil in their hollow interiors, are nurseries for colonies of young trees, some strong individual finally shouldering out the others, growing larger, and, as the mother stump drops away, sending its roots downward into the earth through the disintegrating textures until it in time becomes a great tree.

Women's Strength in Tears.

The weakest woman in all the world is armed with one weapon against which man's pride and strength are powerless. Her tears will win when everything else has failed. A woman's tears move her own tender sex as well as the sterner masculine brutes. Old and young yield to their potent spell, and when the woman happens to be pretty there is no telling what will follow when her bright eyes grow misty with these messengers from a wounded heart. It is folly to attempt to stand out against a woman's tears. They have caused revolutions. They have made and unmade many a great cause. They can be met in only one way—unconditional surrender.—Exchange.

Placing Him Right.

As a northern express drew up at a station in the early morning for a few minutes' wait, a pleasant looking gentleman stepped out on the platform, and, inhaling the fresh air, enthusiastically observed to the guard:

"Isn't this invigorating?"

"No, sir; it is Normanton," said the conscientious employee.

The pleasant looking gentleman retired.—London Telegraph.

Absence.

"We are here today," said the solemn looking man with a thin neck and a collar three sizes too large for him, "and gone tomorrow."

"That's right," agreed the dyspeptic looking man with the ivory black cigar, "and when we get back six months later some of our best friends want to know where we've been for the last two weeks."—Puck.

A Stamp Wasted.

Pettishly she stamped her foot. They were standing on the corner. He had offended her in some way. Again she stamped her foot.

"Well," he said slowly, "there is a letter box, but you must know you can't drop your foot in it. You are simply wasting postage."—Judge.

Revenge is a kind of wild justice

which the more man's nature runs to the more ought law to weed it out.—Bacon.

Business Cards

T. J. FARMER,
FISH OF ALL KINDS, OYSTERS
Clams and Lobsters.
Canned Goods and Fresh Country Eggs. Main Cream a Specialty.
15 BARNARD STREET.

GEORGE S. COLE,
Licensed Auctioneer.
Careful attention given to sales of Household Furniture, Grass Auctions, Etc.
Residence, 18 Chestnut Street, Andover.
Telephone Connected.

FRANK E. DODGE,
Successor to M. E. White.
Mason and Builder.
Special attention given to setting Fire Place and Tiling. Kalsomining, Whitening and Tinting done in the best manner at right prices.
P. O. Box 728, Residence, 68 Park St.

J. P. WAKEFIELD,
MEATS, PROVISIONS, POULTRY
Orders Promptly filled.
Shop, Main St. Andover.

FRANK H. MESSER, Funeral Director and...
Embalmer
RESIDENCE, LOCKE STREET

MISS C. E. GRIBBEN
Millinery
DRAPER BLOCK ANDOVER

FOLLANSBEE NURSERIES
Mrs. E. W. Spalding, Prop.
SHADE AND ORNAMENTAL TREES
PERENNIALS AND SHRUBS
Haggetts Pond, Andover Mass.
P. O. Address, Lowell, R. F. D. 1.

WALTER FRENCH
Furniture and Piano Mover and General Jobber.
RESIDENCE, ELM STREET

TEACHER OF PIANOFORTE
Miss S. S. Torrey
4 Florence St., Andover

TO RENT

After August 18th, No. 221 Main street, Andover Mass. Ten rooms. Bath room, hot and cold water, furnace and electric lights. 1-3 acre of land. On electric car line. Five minutes walk from Phillips Academy and Theological Seminary. Opposite Brothers' Field. Apply to W. S. Beard, Durham, N. H.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Notice is hereby given, that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator of the estate of Margaret Nicholson, late of Andover, in the County of Essex, deceased, intestate, and has taken upon herself that trust by giving bond, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to JENNIE R. HINCHCLIFFE, Adm., Porter St., Andover, July 22, 1903.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

PROBATE COURT.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Benjamin O. Gray, late of North Andover, in said County, deceased, intestate. Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Ira O. Gray, of Andover, in the County of Essex, or to some other suitable person. And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Andover Townsman, a newspaper published in Andover, and the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court. Witness, Rollin E. Harmon, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and three.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

PROBATE COURT.
To Honora E. English, of Methuen, in said County, Julia D. Pierce of Somerville and Timothy A. Collins of Boston both in said County, and Bridget A. Cheyne of Brooklyn, New York. Whereas Dennis F. Collins of Haverhill, in the County of Essex, has presented to said Court a petition, representing that he holds as tenant in common an undivided sixth part or share of certain real estate lying in Andover, in said County of Essex, and described in said petition, and said real estate cannot be advantageously divided, praying that partition may be made among the tenants-in-common according to law; and that the commissioner who may be appointed to make said partition be ordered to make sale and conveyance of said real estate and to distribute the net proceeds thereof. You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Salem, in said County of Essex, on the seventh day of September A. D. 1903, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted. And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Andover Townsman, a newspaper published in Andover, the last publication to be one day at least before said Court. Witness, Rollin E. Harmon, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this thirtieth day of July in the year one thousand nine hundred and three.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

PROBATE COURT.
To Honora E. English, of Methuen, in said County, Julia D. Pierce of Somerville and Timothy A. Collins of Boston both in said County, and Bridget A. Cheyne of Brooklyn, New York. Whereas Dennis F. Collins of Haverhill, in the County of Essex, has presented to said Court a petition, representing that he holds as tenant in common an undivided sixth part or share of certain real estate lying in Andover, in said County of Essex, and described in said petition, and said real estate cannot be advantageously divided, praying that partition may be made among the tenants-in-common according to law; and that the commissioner who may be appointed to make said partition be ordered to make sale and conveyance of said real estate and to distribute the net proceeds thereof. You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Salem, in said County of Essex, on the seventh day of September A. D. 1903, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted. And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Andover Townsman, a newspaper published in Andover, the last publication to be one day at least before said Court. Witness, Rollin E. Harmon, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this thirtieth day of July in the year one thousand nine hundred and three.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

PROBATE COURT.
To Honora E. English, of Methuen, in said County, Julia D. Pierce of Somerville and Timothy A. Collins of Boston both in said County, and Bridget A. Cheyne of Brooklyn, New York. Whereas Dennis F. Collins of Haverhill, in the County of Essex, has presented to said Court a petition, representing that he holds as tenant in common an undivided sixth part or share of certain real estate lying in Andover, in said County of Essex, and described in said petition, and said real estate cannot be advantageously divided, praying that partition may be made among the tenants-in-common according to law; and that the commissioner who may be appointed to make said partition be ordered to make sale and conveyance of said real estate and to distribute the net proceeds thereof. You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Salem, in said County of Essex, on the seventh day of September A. D. 1903, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted. And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Andover Townsman, a newspaper published in Andover, the last publication to be one day at least before said Court. Witness, Rollin E. Harmon, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this thirtieth day of July in the year one thousand nine hundred and three.

Easter Lilies Cinerarias

Azaleas and Palms Carnations Snapdragons
Stocks and Jouquils

J. H. PLAYDON
Telephone 113-4.

The Frve Village Florist

...for sale by...

McLAWLIN

The Hardware Man.

ANDOVER, MASS.

BENJAMIN BROWN,

Dealer in

Boots, Shoes,

AND RUBBERS.

THE "SOROSIS" SHOE

The most advanced shoe for women.

PRICE - - $3.50.

ANDOVER MASS.

C. S. BUCHAN,

Furniture Repairing

and Upholstering

Mattress, Shade and Carpet Work. Repairing and Refinishing Antique Furniture a Specialty.

P. O. Avenue Next to Steam Laundry

RUSSELL & WILSON.

(Successors to MAY & BUNTON.)

PAINTERS, PAPER HANGERS,

INTERIOR DECORATORS

Carriage and Sign Painting a Specialty

Exclusive WALL PAPERS in the latest designs. Samples at our office.

3 BARNARD STREET.

J. D. RUSSELL J. F. WILSON

TEL. 108-3

95 In The Shade . . .

Yes, but I am all right for I have only to turn the button and Electricity does the rest.

Cool! I should say so, it's an

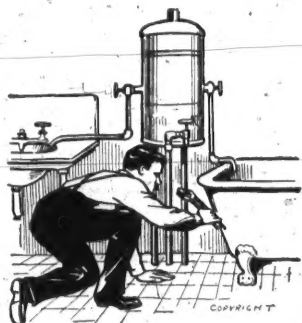

ELECTRIC - FAN

That will make life worth living

T. A. HOLT & CO., NORTH ANDOVER...

T. A. HOLT & CO., NORTH ANDOVER Telephone 535-4

Mackeown
SPRING
MILLINERY351 ESSEX STREET, LAWRENCE
GLEASON BUILDING.

THE LUXURY OF A HOT BATH

The sleep inciter, the restor of tired nerves, is yours at a small cost if you consult and employ me to install a practically instantaneous hot water heating apparatus in your home. Want to know more about it? I am yours to command.

WILLIAM KNIPE
14 PARK STREET

ANYONE WISHING

To have washing, ironing, or house cleaning done, apply to Isaac E. Thorning. Washing taken rough dry if wished. Each washing kept separate. All work called for and delivered. Offices cleaned. Will go out to work by the hour. 16 Central Street. TERMS CASH

BOARD AND ROOM

A Private Family, centrally located, would take lady or gentleman to Board and Room. A good, quiet home for right party. Address "M" Townsman Office.

FOR SALE

Ladies and Gent's Second Hand Clothing every afternoon and evening except Wednesday at Mrs. Henry Cunningham's, Pumphrey Ct. rear of Pumphrey School.

FOUND

Hand painted cuff button. Apply to Chief of Police Frye, Andover, Mass.

PASTURING.

William H. Higgins has excellent pasturing to let on his Prospect Hill farm for both horses and cattle. Apply either at Park Street stables or at the farm.

WANTED

General Housework Girl. Apply to MRS. F. M. TEMPLE, 228 Porter St., Andover.

Done To Order.
LOIS A. CUMMINGS,
28 Phillips Street, Andover, Mass.T. W. NESBITT AGENT FOR
Page Woven Wire Fence

250 Jackson Street, Lawrence Mass

DYSENTERY CURED WITHOUT THE AID OF A DOCTOR.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux," (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by E. M. & W. A. Allen.

LAWRENCE

Silver Wedding Anniversary

The reception tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Petzold Saturday evening in Lyra hall, in observance of their silver wedding anniversary, was a happy and jolly gathering. About one hundred and fifty guests were present. Mr. Petzold is the widely known designer at the Arlington mills and is a recognized authority on the designing of textile fabrics. He is the author of a work on his particular craft which has had an extensive circulation. He lives with his wife and family at 37 Whitman street in this city and sketches of his life and that of his wife were printed in the Telegram Saturday.

The reception was held between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock. The guests greeted the happy couple heartily with many best wishes. Upon their arrival each guest was presented with a handsome bouquet. A boutonniere of pinks was inserted in the lapel of each gentleman's coat and to each lady was presented a bouquet of roses. These were furnished by A. H. Wagland, the florist, who made all the floral decorations. During the evening Fred Kneuper's orchestra discoursed music and many joined in the merry dance.

A very pretty event of the evening according to the ancient custom of the Germans was the crowning of the wife with the silver wreath and the pinning to the coat of the husband the little silver bouquet. This was done with simple ceremony. Two chairs were placed at the centre of the hall where the sons and daughters gathered about their parents. The wife of the oldest son, Mrs. Alfred Petzold received the crowning wreath from a younger son and placed it upon the mother's head afterwards presenting the silver bouquet to the father. This little scene was greeted with applause by those present.

At the proper time in the evening the orchestra struck up a sprightly march and with Mr. and Mrs. Petzold in the lead, the guests joining in one by one, the procession wended its way slowly to the dining hall below where was prepared a bounteous feast. The table appeared radiant in floral beauty bedecked with many bouquets in handsome vases filled with large bunches of the seasonable bloom.

Returning to the hall above dancing was once more enjoyed. Receptions by members of the company were given. At the close of the evening coffee and light lunch was served the guests. The occasion was one of much merry-making and at its close each expressed wishes that their host and hostess live to enjoy and celebrate many such enjoyable anniversaries.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Weisner, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Weisner, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Weisner from Manchester, N. H., Mr. Edwin Weisner, Herbert Weisner, William Weisner, Miss Clara Weisner, Manchester, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Emil Wiesner, Ernest Wiesner, Mrs. Annie Holman from Manchester, N. H., formerly Miss Annie Siegler of Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. August Stiegler, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dick, Mrs. Herman Bennett and sister, from Worcester, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Emil Telchert, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Himmelreich, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Telchert, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Petzold, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Petzold, Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Rosner, Editor and Mrs. Max E. Trumpold, Mr. Otto, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Muller, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Steinert, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Korb, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bachmann, Solomon Petzold, Mr. and Mrs. August Pinkus, Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Greiner, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Otto, Mr. and Mrs. Ashton, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bubinger, Miss Ida Bubinger, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sager, Edwin Teschner, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dimling, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. August Teschner, Mr. and Mrs. Tinsch, Mr. and Mrs. Neubert, Mr. Paul, William and Walter Petzold, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Seifert, Mrs. William Ralton, Emil Kelsch, Herman Paul, Dr. and Mrs. F. Pfefferkorn, Mrs. Carl Eldam, Mr. and Mrs. George I. Hachert, Mrs. Ernestine Rosner, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Stiegler, Mr. and Mrs. William Schuessler.

Special value in White Dotted Muslin, 25c quality, 15 cents per yard, at Farr's Remnant Store, Lawrence.

RETIREES FROM A COMMISSION.

Chairman J. C. Crombie of the Massachusetts Firemen's Relief Fund commission, after 12 years' service as the head of the board, has declined reappointment. The same action has been taken by Secretary Charles S. Paisler of New Bedford and Clifford H. Plummer of Boston, the other members.

Mr. Crombie is in receipt of the following communication: Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Executive Department, Boston, Aug. 11, 1903.

My Dear Sir:—I have before me your favor of July 30 in which you state that after serving 12 years as chairman of the Firemen's Relief Fund commission, you prefer not to be considered a candidate for re-appointment. In acknowledging the receipt of your letter, permit me to express to you my appreciation of the services you have rendered the commonwealth. I recognize that you have been actuated in all your acts by a desire to protect its interests, and on behalf of the commonwealth I thank you.

With respect, I am yours, very truly, JOHN L. BATES.

Mr. Crombie was first appointed July 24 1890, by Governor Brackett. The following year the legislature reduced the board to three members and Mr. Crombie was again appointed by Governor Russell, the commission which he has since held dating from August 18, 1891. He has occupied the position of chairman continuously from that time.

Regarding his retirement Mr. Crombie said: "Both Captain Paisler and I have for some time intended to relinquish our position, and Mr. Plummer did not care to remain with new members. The last legislature having changed the law requiring annual appointments, it was a good opportunity to get out and we availed ourselves of it. Regarding Governor Bates and his attitude toward us, I want to state that it could not have been more cordial. It has been my privilege to be brought in contact with nearly every governor of the state during the past 15 years, one of whom I have known intimately.

"High-minded, courageous and statesmanlike, Governor Bates will not suffer by comparison with any of his illustrious predecessors."

Special value in White Dotted Muslin, 25c quality, 15 cents per yard, at Farr's Remnant Store, Lawrence.

Child Died in Railroad Station

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—While Mrs. Kate Sontag, wife of John Sontag, a dyer of 28 Dewey street, Methuen, Mass., was in the Grand Central station today, her five-year-old daughter died in her lap. Mrs. Sontag landed today from the Vaterland, Red D line after a trip to her mother's home in Bavaria, Germany, where her child, Ida, was taken ill and a hasty return to America became necessary.

The girl became violently ill while Mrs. Sontag was waiting for her train at the station and died in a few moments.

The mother was hysterical with grief and many men and women in the station were greatly moved by her bereavement. An ambulance surgeon was called from the Flower hospital but arrived too late. The body was taken to the police station in the basement.

A woman who said she was Mrs. Helen A. McKelvey of Bedford avenue, Brooklyn, befriended Mrs. Sontag who had just money enough to pay her fare to Lawrence. Mrs. McKelvey purchased the woman her lunch, obtained an undertaker to care for the child's body, and after telephoning the coroner, visited Ellis island and arranged for the quick discharge of a female companion who accompanied Mrs. Sontag to this country from Germany. The child's body was placed in a hermetically sealed zinc coffin and Mrs. Sontag took an afternoon train for Lawrence.

Yesterday morning Mr. Sontag was the recipient of a letter which gave the information that Mrs. Sontag and daughter were well and would be home Tuesday night or this morning.

While at work in the Pacific mills print works yesterday afternoon Mr. Sontag received a telegram bearing the sad news from J. W. Stevens, station agent at the Grand Central station.

At 10:35 o'clock the train bearing Mrs. Sontag and the child's body arrived in this city. The remains were taken in charge by Undertaker Emmert and were removed to the family home in Methuen.

Mrs. Sontag said that the child was in the best of health when leaving the boat but when in the station was attacked with a violent attack of whooping cough and before medical assistance could be gotten had passed away.

LAWRENCE MAN LOST HIS LIFE.

A drowning accident occurred at Salisbury beach Sunday and Daniel Maycock of 54 South Broadway, this city, was the victim.

The fatality occurred about 1 o'clock in the surf, not far from the Oregon house, where he was stopping for the day. It is not precisely known what caused Maycock's collapse, but he lost his strength probably from being seized by a cramp. It was thought by some that heart failure overtook him for it is claimed that he made scarcely any sound as he went down. The scene state that they heard no sound from him. He was known to have been a good swimmer.

His unconscious and lifeless body was taken ashore and an attempt was made to revive him. No water was found in his lungs. He was pronounced dead at the Salisbury police station to which place he was taken.

He was a woolsorter by trade and was employed in E. Frank Lewis' mill. He was about 48 years of age, unmarried, and had lived in Lawrence about 12 years.

The deceased left this city Saturday for the shore to remain over Sunday and was stopping at the Oregon House, conducted by Joseph Bateman, also of this city.

The body was brought to this city this morning and was taken in charge by Undertaker Conlin and Ryan, Maycock had no relatives in this city and the funeral arrangements have as yet not been made. His Amesbury relatives had not been heard from this noon. The funeral will probably be on Wednesday.

MATRIMONIAL.

HEY-SNOWDEN.

At St. Peter's Church, Manton, Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, George Wallace Hey and Miss Emily Snowden of North Providence, formerly of Lawrence, were united in matrimony by Rev. Alva E. Carpenter, rector of the church. The ceremony moved up the north aisle of the church in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was met at the steps to the choir by the groom and the bride and groom took place in the following order: Richard Craven of Lawrence, and Henry Ogden Bedford of Thornton; the ushers, followed by Miss Elizabeth G. Howarth of Lawrence and Miss Hattie Amelia Higgins of Manton, the bridesmaids; Miss Rose Emma Stiles of Eastwick, maid-of-honor, immediately preceding the bride who came in on the arm of her father, Richard Snowden, superintendent of the yarn department in the Lymanville Worsted Mill. The bride was

Andover Real Estate Agency

MUSGROVE BLOCK

HOW ARE THESE FOR BARGAINS?

FOR SALE—A good house and barn with about three acres of land; five minutes walk from the post office. Very cheap at $2100.

Fine house of eight rooms, sewer connected, town water. This property is in first class condition. Just the chance to own your own home. Price cut down to $2000.

A fine property on Main street. Good neighborhood and good houses. This property comprises one double house and a single house; the rent from the double house alone will bring you in six per cent. on the investment. Why pay rent when such an opportunity presents itself. Will sell the property for $4000.

A splendid residence on Andover Hill; house of ten rooms, stable and two acres of land. Superb location and good neighborhood.

FOR RENT—On Maple avenue, a tenement of four rooms, very cosy and handy to the mills and electric.

A neat little cottage of six rooms in Elm court.

We have besides these already mentioned, good rentable property on Bartlett, Central, Main and Elm streets, at various prices. Have some farms in Andover from 5 to 100 acres at all prices.

Give us a call. Office hours from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Rents Collected. Estates Cared For. Mortgages Negotiated.

Rogers' Auctioneering Agency

Telephone 118-2

PARK STREET STABLES

W. H. HIGGINS, Proprietor.

Livery and Boarding Stable High Grade Sale Horses
Phillips Inn Carriage Service Prospect Hill Stock Farm Affording a First-class "All the Year Round" Stable Service

A Lot of Good Carriage Horses and Several Fine Carriages For Sale

Hacks For Weddings and Funerals. Carriages Meet Principal Trains.
Telephone 115-3, Andover

LADIES' $3.00 OXFORDS

—FOR—

$2.50

—AT—

GEORGE F. CHEEVER'S

MAIN ST., ANDOVER

WATCHES of QUALITY

FOR LADIES AND MEN

Watches that will be a credit to the wearer. Plain or beautifully engraved cases containing reliable works to make perfect time-pieces.

PRICES RIGHT
COME AND SEE

J. E. WHITING,

Jeweler and Optician.

Andover, Mass.

Get Ready for the Fall Opening of Schools

It will take only a postal card to call

A. L. KAISER 10 PARK STREET ANDOVER Tel. 106-11

to your assistance. The removal of the bulk of cleaning, the taking up and the relaying of carpets, which have been thoroughly freshened and cleaned, takes a big load from a weary woman's shoulders. Then why not shift it to ours; they are broad.

We can attend to other work in our line for you as well. Phone us

BURNS

LAUNDRY AGENCY.

Maker of Men's Clothes and Outfitter.

FOWNE'S GLOVES.

Main Street.

THE ANDOVER TOWNSMAN

ANDOVER, MASS.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY

THE ANDOVER PRESS, Limited,
JOHN N. COLE

Subscription price, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies 5 cents.

Advertising rates sent on application.
All business matters should be addressed to The Andover Press.

The offices of The Townsman are in Draper's Block
35 & 37 MAIN STREET.

Entered as 2d-Class Matter at the Andover Post-Office.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 21, 1903.

"Country-Men's" Government.

Is it because "God made the country and man made the city" that we hear none of the rumors of corruption that apply to the great cities attached to the towns of our land? Certainly there is much besides the pure air, and green grass, and beautiful trees over which the countryman may be happy in these days of world wide agitation over corruption and abuse in office.

Our city cousins are very wont to laugh at the simple ways, and crude methods, in which affairs are conducted in the towns. They boast of their city departments and their multiplicity of officials along with their high buildings and big policemen, but these are the times when the countryman is very willing to sit back in satisfaction and contentment that he does not live in the big city.

The fact is, the old fashioned town government, the government in which once a year every citizen of the town has a part, just as active as he desires to make it, the countryman's government if you will, is standing the test remarkably well. It isn't very showy, and its officials often wear overalls, and seldom smoke cigars, but it is almost absolutely honest and the men who run the gauntlet of their neighbors' critical scrutiny are usually made of the right stuff.

The "country-man's" government goes back to the right foundation and just as long as it rests there, there will be a dignity in the town office, and a satisfaction in the administering of town affairs, that is felt by no other officials and in no other sort of public service.

A Little Courtesy.

Courtesy is never wasted. And in no place is it more needed than in the discussion of a topic in which the disputants may have great interest and upon which their views may be directly opposed.

Our attention has been called to an apparent oversight of this truth on the part of a recent Townsman correspondent, and as there is some ground for the complaint we are moved to touch upon the subject. Abuse is never argument, it has been called the coward's weapon. If one does not agree with another let the question be discussed with all possible energy, but never get mad. The Townsman does not mean to allow any show of illfeeling in its columns. It welcomes all sorts of discussion upon all sorts of subjects, but discourtesy will not be tolerated in the decent newspaper's columns any more than it will in good society. Be courteous because it is right, and because it pays.

Editorial Cinders.

In discussing transfers for Andover last week we omitted to speak of the situation in Frye Village, which comprises a fifteen cent fare for all Frye Village residents to Reading. It would seem as if the ten cent fare should take in all people within the Andover bounds going to Reading, and a five cent fare all people within the Andover bounds going to Lawrence. It may not be out of place to state that the writer has every assurance that the Andover situation regarding transfers will be relieved in a measure. Just what will be done is problematical as yet, but the matter has been carefully gone over by the "powers that be," and some change is bound to come soon.

The people in Andover will perhaps hear with surprise that Mr. G. E. Johnson has gone back to his first love as a superintendent of schools. They will, however, almost universally congratulate our neighboring towns of Tewksbury, Tyngsboro, Dracut, and North Reading, that to them is to be given his services in that capacity. Andover learned to think very highly of Mr. Johnson and it is pleasant to have him again active in the towns near to us.

The tragic death of Mr. Patrick Burke touched many people in Andover who had learned to know and highly respect the quiet man who for so many years has been a familiar part of the town life. Leaving the mill for the sake of his health, he soon found the niche which he was so well fitted to fill, and that he had been successful was due to his qualities as an honest merchant and a warm hearted sympathetic friend.

It is a delight to see highway repairs being done in such a manner as Supt. Levey is following on Main street. It pays for the long waiting time to have such a piece of road as is now being finished there, to replace the very tough surface of the old road.

SMITH & DOVE OUTING

Employees of Smith & Dove Enjoy a Day at Revere Beach.

Four special cars loaded with employees of the Smith & Dove Mfg. Co., started for Revere beach last Saturday morning, at seven minutes past seven and arrived at the beach after a very pleasant run of two hours and eight minutes. All immediately scattered according to their tastes, some indulging in bathing, others in dancing and the various sports which the place afforded.

The weather was perfect and no accident of any kind happened to mar the pleasure of the day. The return was scheduled at six, but the picnickers were not all gathered until fifteen minutes later. A pleasant ride home ended one of the most enjoyable picnics ever held by the Smith & Dove people. The committee in charge was Hugh Kydd, John Dugan, Alexander Anderson, W. O'Connor and James Cairnie and the presence of Asst. Treas. Bell added to the pleasure of the occasion.

Chase-Chase Reunion.

The fourth annual reunion of the Chase-Chase Family Association, of which O. P. Chase is secretary, will be held at the First Unitarian Church (known as the church of the Apostle Eliot) corner of Eliot square and Dudley street, Boston, Mass., at 10 a. m., Thursday, September 3, 1903.

The address this year will be made by Rev. George S. Chase of Maine, in addition to which an interesting literary and musical programme is now in preparation. Nearly every community contains descendants of William, Aquila or Thomas Chase, who came to America from England nearly three hundred years ago, and an invitation is extended to all to be present.

Surprise to Andover Couple by Friends in Exeter.

The following from the Exeter News Letter, will be of local interest: Mr. and Mrs. George S. Breck were agreeably surprised at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. James E. Cahill, 16 Walnut street, Wednesday evening. The evening was pleasantly spent in the enjoyment of music, both instrumental and vocal. The affair had been arranged with such secrecy that the surprise was complete. There were about thirty in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Breck were the recipients of a handsome banquet lamp. Refreshments of ice-cream, cake and fruit were served.

WEST PARISH.

Mrs. Mary E. Chase is seriously ill.
Miss Clara Putnam has been visiting friends in Contooscook, N. H.

Miss Kate Pike who has been visiting in England, returned Thursday.

Miss Marjory Morrill is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Swasey

Mr. Alonzo Holt of Goffstown, N. H., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. Warren Tuck

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hardy of Somerville are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hardy.

Miss Lucy S. Carter is visiting relatives and friends in different parts of Nova Scotia.

Miss Carolyn J. Burt has returned from a week's visit with friends in Rochester, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Cutler and daughter Dorothy spent Sunday with friends at Hampton beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wheeler of New York, who have been visiting Mrs. Sarah Wagstaff, have returned home.

Mr. George M. Webster and Miss Ella H. Chase of Laconia, N. H., are visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. E. W. Burt.

A number of young people gave a party to Miss Louise Kelsey, last Monday at the home of E. F. Abbott, before Miss Kelsey's return to her home in Toledo, Ohio.

Miss Grace and Ethel Burnham, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hardy, have gone to Dunbarton, N. H., for a couple of weeks, before returning to their home in St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Stringer and family of Somerville, who have been occupying the Klondike cottage at Haggitt's Pond, have returned home and the camp is now occupied by Mr. Shiner and family, also of Somerville.

EMINENT ENGLISH PREACHERS TO REMAIN IN NORTHFIELD DURING SEPTEMBER.

Immediately after the General Conference of Christian Workers, a series of religious lectures have been planned at Northfield which will continue until September 21. This is in compliance with the requests of various people that some of the more prominent of the conference speakers remain over and present in detail certain lines of Christian thought. To this end, Dr. G. Campbell Morgan, who is connected with the Northfield extension work, will deliver several lectures on the general subject "The Grace of God." He is followed by Rev. Samuel Chadwick, the famous "Chadwick of Leeds," who will be in Northfield from August 18 to September 1, and will give a number of "Studies in the Apocalypse." After him, from September 1 to the 21st, Dr. James Orr, Professor of Theology, Free Church College, will speak on "The Bible in the Light of Recent Discoveries in Babylon, Assyria and Egypt." At the same time, Rev. W. H. Griffith Thomas, rector of St. Paul's, Portman Square, London, expects to lecture on the New Testament, choosing as his subject, "How to Master John's Gospel," and "How to Master the Acts of the Apostles." In addition to the regular scheduled addresses, daily chapel exercises will be held at Mr. Hernon school and Northfield Seminary, which will be open to people attending the addresses at Northfield. This is the last summer gathering scheduled for the Northfield season this year, and from the class and number of speakers, promises to be one of the most helpful.

BYRON TRUETT COMPANY

LAWRENCE.

ALTERATION SALE

SPECIAL VALUES FOR SATURDAY.

Ladies' Gloves

Ladies' Suede Kid Gloves in light and medium shades, 2 clasp and one button, an excellent quality and sold regularly at $1.25. Sale price, per pair, 59c

Laces

Point-de-Paris Laces, 5 and 6 inches wide, handsome patterns; our regular 15c and 17c quality. Special sale price, per yard, 7c

Muslins

We will offer for Saturday, a choice line of Muslins, all many grounds, in dainty dots, figures and stripe effects; these goods are sold regularly at 12 1/2c yard. Sale price per yard, 8c

Cambric

Bleached Cambric, one yard wide, in lengths from 6 to 20 yards, beautiful soft finish and sold in regular way at 10c yard. Sale price, yard 6 1/4c

10c Percales, 6 1/2c yd.

Yard wide Percales, in a choice assortment of dainty patterns in light and medium shadings, an excellent quality and worth 10c yard. Sale price, 6 1/2c

White Goods

A beautiful line of Fine Stripes Madras and Nainsook, in excellent styles and sold regularly at 15c and 19c yard. Special sale price, yard, 10c

Republican Political Calendar.

Sept. 23—All Republican caucuses of political parties for the choice of delegates to conventions and nominations of candidates to be voted for at the state election must be held on this day.

Sept. 28—Earliest day of calling and holding Republican conventions, except representative conventions.

Sept. 3—Last day for appointing election officers in cities.

Oct. 1—Earliest day for calling and holding Republican representative conventions.

Oct. 2—Republican state convention.

Oct. 3—Last day for posting of voters' list.

Oct. 3—Last day for designating polling places.

Oct. 13—Last day for holding conventions.

Oct. 15—Last day for appointing of supervisors of election.

Oct. 15—Last day for appointing of election officers in towns.

Oct. 15—Last day for filing certificates on nominations.

Oct. 16—Last day for filing nomination papers.

Oct. 24—Last day for registration in towns.

Nov. 3—State election.

Obituary.

MRS. WILLIAM MELDRUM.

Mrs. William Meldrum died at her home on Brook street, last Monday morning, shortly before noon, the cause of her death being heart disease, from which she had suffered for a number of years. She was 65 years of age and was born in Aberdeen, Scotland. For the past 35 years she had made her home in Andover. She leaves her husband, three daughters, Mrs. E. J. Rowe of Boston, Mrs. Weeks of Somerville, Miss Susan of Somerville, and a son, John who is living in Waverly.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at her home, Rev. F. A. Wilson, of the Free church officiating, and burial was in the Spring Grove cemetery.

Marked down from 20 cents

Come in and see our great bargains in

Candy only 10c PER LB.

HIGGINS' BAKERY

Weather Record.

Temperature taken in the morning between 5 and 7 o'clock and at noon between 12 and 1 o'clock.

1902	Morn.	Noon.	1903	Morn.	Noon.
Aug. 14	48	76	Aug. 14	48	77
" 15	55	80	" 15	55	78
" 16	57	72	" 16	58	80
" 17	48	72	" 17	60	80
" 18	48	74	" 18	54	80
" 19	60	84	" 19	60	80
" 20	50	78	" 20	65	82

COOL KITCHENS

Make Summer Cooking Bearable if not Actually Enjoyable - - - -

...GET A...

GAS RANGE

and be comfortable using the hot weather.

GAS

Is Safer,

Is Cheaper.

Is Cleaner,

Than any other fuel.

LAWRENCE GAS CO.,

Musgrove Block.

A FEW TREATS AT TREAT'S

GARDEN HOSE, HAMMOCKS, WATER CANS, ICE COOLERS, LAWN MOWERS, WINDOW SCREENS, ICE CREAM FREEZERS, SCREEN DOORS.

Don't forget we are still selling Sallade & Co's Magic Mosquito Bite Cure and Insect Exterminator.

TREAT HARDWARE & SUPPLY CO.

TOWNSMAN WINS

Defeats Telegram in a Hard Fought and Interesting Game of Base Ball
by a Score of 6 to 5.

Tuesday afternoon the Townsman de-fated the Telegram in an exciting game on the Phillips Academy campus, by the score of 6 to 5.

In their half of the first the Telegram scored on a base on balls, a stolen base and a hit. The Townsman duplicated the performance. The only scoring in the second was done by Bliss who made a single. Moriarty in a vain attempt to catch him at first threw the ball into the weeds beyond first, and so the runner kept on, completing the circuit before the ball was found.

In the third, the Townsman added two more runs to their lead and the game seemed safe, but fortune is ever fickle and in the first of the fifth, a batter being hit by a pitched ball, a base on balls, an error and two hits resulted in three runs for the Telegram, tying the score.
The Townsman in their half had three men on bases and two out when Brock put a hot one to Stillings who got it to first just in time to retire him. Telegram stock soared high when they made another run in their half of the sixth, but they were doomed to disappointment for Whittemore of the Townsman was given a life at first by Rhodes allowing a third strike to pass him. "Joe" purloined second and scored on Counts' two-bagger, tying the score. Counts stole third, and by waltzing toward home kept Fellow from throwing Leslie out at first, Leslie stole second, Thompson hit a swift one to the infield and Counts by repeating his former tactics enabled the former to reach third. Starbuck the next man up dropped a pretty hit just between third and short and the game was won.

A few of the features were the beautiful running catch made by "Blackie" in the fourth of a long foul fly in right field; and the cool pitching of Leslie with the bases full, striking out his man and preventing a score. Joe Whittemore was also very adept at stealing bases, twice getting to first and stealing second and third. Sutcliffe and Thompson did a very polite "after you" act with one fly, half way between left and center, but afterward made up for it; Thompson taking a beauty at center, and Sutcliffe getting two hard fouls after long runs.
Brock also made fine catch of a foul fly back of third base, with the sun in his eyes, Starbuck did general good work at second, and Luther put up some plucky back stopping, getting hit three or four times on his right arm.

The score:
TOWNSMAN.
Counts ss ab r bh tb po a e
Leslie p 3 1 1 2 0 0 0
Thompson c 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Starbuck 2b 4 1 2 2 1 2 0
Luther c 3 1 0 0 0 0 1
Bliss 1b 2 1 0 0 0 0 1
Sutcliffe if 2 0 0 0 2 0 0
Brock 3b 3 0 0 0 2 0 2
Monahan rf 0 0 0 0 0 0 1
Whittemore rf 3 1 1 0 0 0 0
Totals 27 6 4 5 15 7 4

TELEGRAM.
Moriarty ss 3b ab r bh tb po a e
Rhodes p 3 1 0 0 0 0 3
Martin 1b 3 0 0 0 0 0 0
Pedlow p 3 1 1 1 0 2 0
McGovern 2b 3 0 1 1 0 2 1
Stillings 3b ss 2 0 0 0 2 0 2
Zornfield if 3 1 2 2 0 0 0
Brown c 3 0 0 0 0 0 0
Black rf 3 0 1 1 1 0 0
Totals 26 5 7 10 6 1

Innings 1 2 3 4 5 6-Townsman 1 1 2 0 0 2-6
Telegram 1 0 0 0 3 1-5
Two base hit, Counts; bases on balls, off Leslie 2; off Pedlow 2; struck out, Rhodes 2; by Leslie 5; passed balls,
Rhodes 4; Luther 3; hit by pitched ball,
Black; wild pitches, Leslie; unplay-
John N. Cole; time, 1:30.

Special value in White Dotted Muslin, 25 cent quality, 15 cents per yard, at Farr's Remnant Store, Lawrence.

During the Summer Months we shall offer some very attractive bargains in Books and Stationery

THIS WEEK WE OFFER

300 lbs. Commercial Note Linen Paper, ruled and plain, at 14c per lb.

A good value at 25c per lb.

Envelopes to match,

5c per package

Also 6000 Envelopes of various kinds and sizes, formerly sold at 10c and 15c, now

4c per package

3 for 10c

G. A. HIGGINS & CO.,

The Andover Bookstore

KILLED BY TRAIN

Untimely Death of Patrick Burke — One of And-over's Well Known Citizens

During the heavy rain storm on Monday afternoon shortly before 5:30 o'clock a fatal accident occurred at North Andover in which Patrick Burke of Andover, was killed together with his horse.
His dry goods cart was also wrecked.

The fatality occurred at what is known as the Essex street crossing on the Salem and Lawrence branch of the Eastern division of the Boston and Maine railroad. The horse and front part of the covered team driven by Mr.
Burke were struck by the locomotive attached to the passenger train from Salem due at the North Andover station at 5:25 o'clock. Mr. Burke was thrown from the seat and the horse and vehicle were hurled down a steep embankment of about 50 feet. The contents of the cart were strewn for some distance about the place.

The engineer applied the brakes and the train came to a stop as soon as possible and the train officials came running back to determine the result of the disaster. The body of Mr. Burke, which still showed signs of life was tenderly carried into one of the coaches and the train made its way to Lawrence, but before medical assistance could be secured and before the train reached its destination, the man was dead. Assistant Medical Examiner Reed, was called in the absence of Dr. Dow and death was pronounced as probably due to concussion of the brain as the head was badly cut and the left arm was broken.

Daniel McGilvrey, an employee of the New England Tel. and Tel. Co., was a witness of the accident, as he was the occupant of a wagon just behind the one driven by Mr. Burke. He rendered what assistance he could and Constable
William J. Toohy and Officer Patrick J.
Healey of North Andover, performed official duties at the scene of the accident, being on hand soon after it happened.

The crossing where the accident occurred is not guarded by a flagman as it is in the outskirts of the town and little used.

Essex street commences at the Centre and passes between the T. A. Holt store and the Unitarian church. The Foss residence is at the right as one goes toward the railroad, and the street is joined by the road which passes over the tracks further down coming from Stevens village at the Oliver Stevens farm. The grade leading up to the crossing going toward the Centre is very steep and the street is built up to correspond with the grade of the railroad, with fences guarding a steep embankment on either side.

It was raining and the heavy drops were making such a loud patter upon the covering of the wagon that probably the driver did not hear the approach of the train which has a down grade all the way into Lawrence. The horse was no doubt walking up the hill and across the crossing when the train struck him as Mr. Burke had completed his day's sales and was making his way back to his home in Andover.

Mr. Burke was a native of Ireland and was born in 1831. He came to this country when about twenty-four years old and for 47 years has lived in Andover.
His age was 72 years and 2 months.
When he first came to Andover he entered the employment of the Smith & Dove Mfg. Co., and he remained with them a number of years. Then he went into the dry goods business on his own account, doing business chiefly in the district outlying Andover.

Besides his wife he leaves three daughters, Annie, Sadie and Susan and one son, Edward, now living in Chicago.
Mr. Burke was well known in Andover and has always been spoken of in the highest manner by all who knew him.
His integrity was unquestioned and he was especially noted for his kindness to animals. His kindness and love for his fellow men was shown by the number of friends who came to pay their tribute of sympathy to the bereaved family.
The funeral services were held in St.
Augustine's church, Thursday morning at nine, burial being in St. Augustine's cemetery.

Auld Lang Syne in Tartan.

Should Gaelic speech be ever forgot,
An' ne'er brocht to min,
For she'll be spoke in Paradise,
In days o' Lang Syne.

When Eve, all fresh in beauty's charms,
First met from Adam's flow,
The first words ta' a' she'll spoke till her Wis, "Cumar Asghar duh."

An' Adam, in her garden fair, When'er ta' did close,
Ta' tish that she'll so supper teuk Wis always Athole Brose.

When Adam from her leafy power
Cam out at break o' day,
She'll always for her morning teuk
A quat' o' usquebae.

An' when w' Eve she'll had a crack,
She'll teuk his sneeshin' horn,
An' on the tap ye'll weid nicht mark
A ponny prau Cullingorm.

Ta' sneeshin' mull is fine, my freens,
Ta' sneeshin' mull is gran;
W'e'll teuk a hearty sneesh, my freens,
An' pass't frae han' t' han.

When man first frae the want o' claes,
Ta' win an' caul to deo,
She'll twist roon about her waist
Ta' Tartan Philabeg.

An' mistic first on earth wis heard
In Gaelic accents deep,
When Jubal in her oter squeezit
Ta' blither o' a sheep.

Ta' prau bagpipes liss gran, my freens,
Ta' prau bagpipes liss fine;
We'll teuk anither pibroch yet,
For Auld Lang Syne.

BOY CURED OF COLIC AFTER PHY- SICIAN'S TREATMENT HAD FAILED.

"My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered."—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book-keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by E.
M. & W. A. Allen.

Money In The Bank

You can SAVE MONEY and Find a CHOICE
Stock of ALL KINDS OF FURNITURE

Contained Within our Five Story Building

RANGES REFRIGERATORS and BABY CARRIAGES

AT CUT PRICES THIS MONTH

We Give Blue Trading Stamps With Each Sale.

Fred P. Berry & Co.

430 Essex Street, Lawrence

Five Leaders in Glenwoods

RANGES, FURNACES,
HOT WATER, STEAM, COMBINATION HEATERS.

Five Leaders in Glenwoods

GLENWOOD PERFECTION

CALL AND SEE THE NEW CATALOG AND CONSULT

GEORGE SAUNDERS,

For Your Plumbing, Steam or Gas Fitting.

MAIN ST.,

Tel. 28-5

BALLARDVALE.

UNION CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Rev.
Edwin Smith, Pastor.
10:30 a. m. Worship with sermon by Rev.
W. H. Ryder.

There will be no session of the Sunday school.
7:00 p. m. Union C. E. meeting.
7:30 p. m. Thursday evening prayer meeting.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, Rev.
Frank H. Hall, pastor. Services for Sunday,
Aug. 23.
10:30 a. m. Worship with sermon by the pastor.

Sunday school to follow.
7:00 p. m. Union Epworth League Meeting.
7:30 p. m. Friday evening prayer meeting.

Mrs. John Palmer is visiting relatives in Maine.

Miss Margaret Mungall is the guest of Miss Isabel Miller.

John Colilton of Somerville, is visiting Thomas McGovern.

Charles Shattuck is spending several days at the Hedding camp ground.

Miss Alice McIntyre is spending the week with relatives at Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Shaw spent Sunday with relatives at Groveland.

Miss Martha Lawrence and Miss Annie Wood spent Saturday and Sunday at Salisbury beach.

Mrs. Gilman Page of Malden has been the guest for several days of Mrs. Millie B. Hammond.

Herbert Clarke returned Wednesday from a two weeks' stay at the Hedding camp ground.

The Misses Effie and Elsie Teague are spending the week with relatives in So.
Berwick, Me.

Ballardvale will play the Crescents of Lowell, on the Plains, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. C. F. Parker and daughter, Ruth, and Miss Lizzie Steed, spent Wednesday at Revere beach.

John N. Stark is spending the week with his daughter, Mrs. E. R. Lawson, at Somersworth, N. H.

Mrs. Thomas Ready of Lynn, has been the guest for several days of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard S. Clemons and children of Wakefield, spent Sunday with relatives in the village.

Mrs. A. A. Woodlin and Mrs. Charles Greene spent Wednesday with the latter's sister in Ayer's Village.

Mrs. William Cleveland and daughter Charlotte of Springfield are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark and family of Andover, spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Howell F. Wilson.

Mrs. John Dehl of New York city is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Miller, Tewksbury St.

Mrs. Frank Parkhurst and daughter Margaret of Malden spent Thursday and Friday with friends in the Vale.

Mr. and Mrs. William Shaw, Mrs.
Joseph Shaw and Miss Nellie Holmes are stopping at Monument beach.

Lorenzo Shattuck of Hartford, Vt., is spending the week with his brother, Nathan Shattuck, Chester street.

Mrs. Willard F. Lowe and son Everett of Providence, R. I., have been spending the week with Mrs. Mary S. Lowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison P. Monson and family returned to their home in Gloucester for the winter, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George O'Brien and daughter of Lowell, were the guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Conway.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dow of Boston, have been the guests during the past week of Mr. and Mrs. Howell F. Wilson.

The dance by the O. K. I. T. in Bradlee Hall, Saturday evening promises to be one of the society events of the season.

Mrs. Daniel Whittemore of Lawrence, and Mrs. Joseph Whittemore of Andover spent Tuesday with relatives in the Vale.

Miss Leona Fellows returned Friday to her home in Somerville, having spent a week with her aunt Mrs. Abbie A.
Woodlin.

Melville Smith has been in Rome for a week and was there at the time of the election of the Pope. He is in Greece at present, and is due to arrive in New York, Sept. 8.

Beatrice Miller, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miller died Monday forenoon after a brief illness, at the age of 5 1-2 months, at her home on Dale street. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Frank H.
Hall officiated. A number of friends and relatives from Lowell were among those present. The floral offerings were very beautiful. Interment in Spring Grove cemetery.

BASEBALL

Ballardvale, 8; Brookside, 5.

Ballardvale won their twelfth game of the season by defeating the strong Brookside of Lowell, on the Plains, Saturday, by the score of 8 to 5. The game was well played and hotly contested throughout and was won by the steady playing of the home team at critical times. The visitors were unable to score in the last five innings. For the visitors Hickey pitched good ball, striking out ten men. Jodym made a fine throw from center field retiring Platt at the home plate.

For the home team, Drisko pitched a star game, striking out 8 men and pitching his best when his meant runs. Lynch made a remarkably fast play in retiring a man at first on what seemed a sure base hit over second base. Bradley's all round play was one of the main features of the game, as he scored 4 of the 8 runs for his side. The batting of Bradley, Wheatley, Dearborn, Allen and Tucker was strong and timely.

The score:

BALLARDVALE
	ab	r	bh	tb	po	a	e
Bradley, 2b	2	4	2	5	4	0	1
H. Platt, 1b	4	1	1	1	1	0	0
W. Wheatley, 3b	4	0	2	3	1	3	2
Bonner, if	4	0	1	1	0	0	1
Lynch, ss	4	1	0	0	1	4	2
Rooney, c	4	0	0	0	7	3	0
Hefferan, m	3	1	1	1	1	0	0
Dearborn, rf	3	1	2	4	0	0	0
Drisko, p	3	0	0	0	0	2	0
Totals	31	8	9	15	5	12	6

BROOKSIDES.
	ab	r	bh	tb	po	a	e
Jodym, m	4	1	0	0	0	1	0
Allen, if	3	1	2	3	0	0	0
Friden, rf	5	1	1	1	1	0	0
Gaggy, ss	5	1	1	3	1	1	0
Defoe, c	5	0	1	e	10	4	1
Tucker, 1b	5	0	2	2	7	0	0
Layfe, 3b	4	0	0	0	0	0	2
Sutcliff, 2b	3	0	0	0	4	1	2
Hickey, p	3	1	1	1	5	0	0
Totals	37	5	8	11	24	12	5

*Sutcliffe hit by batted ball.
*Allen out for interference.

Innings 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Ballardvale 1 0 1 2 0 2 0 0 8
Brookside 3 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 5

Summary: Two base hits, Wheatley
Allen. Three base hits, Dearborn, Ga-ggy. Home run, Bradley. Strike outs, Drisko, 8; Hickey, 10. Bases on balls, Drisko, 4; Hickey, 2. Left on bases, Ballardvale 1; Brookside, 10. Stolen bases, Ballardvale, 5; Brookside, 8.
Passed balls, Rooney, 1; Defoe, 1. Hit by pitcher, Allen. Double play, Hickey to Tucker. Umpires, Fadden, Jacques, Clinton.

William Morrison of Lawrence, spent Sunday in the Vale.

Miss Margaret Joyce of Winchester is visiting Miss Kate Joyce.

John Harrison of Sausal, is visiting his friend, Michael Wheatley.

Miss Marguerite Elmer of Lawrence is the guest of Mrs. Kate Tobin.

Mrs. Frank Morse of Andover, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. John T.
Wood.

Miss Nellie Hickey of Lowell, is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. John Haggerty.

Mrs. Ethel Quimby of Haverhill, has been the guest during the past week of Mrs. J. W. Stark.

Miss Gertrude Stillman and Mrs. Hannah Roach of Dorchester are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sherry.

Mrs. Salmon Walker has returned home from an eight weeks' visit with relatives at Highland Creek, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hudson of Lawrence, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hudson.

Letter to Chas. L. White.

Andover, Mass.

Dear Sir: Most mixed paints are either adulterated or short measure. Devoe Lead and Zinc is neither, so it cannot be classed with mixed paints. That's why it takes fewer gallons of Devoe to paint a house than it does of a mixed paint, and it lasts longer for the same reason.

Ferguson & Thompson's store, Delhi, N. Y., was painted some years ago with thirty-two gallons of mixed paint.
Painted it last spring with Devoe Lead and Zinc—thirteen gallons did the work.

Devoe Lead and Zinc is here or will be here very shortly. Spread the good news.

Yours truly,

F. W. DEVOE & CO.

21 New York

P. S.—E. M. & W. A. Allen sell our paint.

OAK DALE FARM.

Acreated milk and cream delivered fresh every morning in glass jars.

GEO. L. AVERILL,

P. O. BOX 364, ANDOVER.

NEW COURT HOUSE

Lawrence the Possessor of one of the Finest Law Buildings in Massachusetts

Work Approaching Completion

There is no courthouse in Essex county that is a grander specimen of architectural beauty than the new courthouse in this city, now in the last stages of construction. Neither is there a building in this city, nor in the county, at the present time, that comes anywhere near being its equal in the way of beauty.

This city presents no building that is at all comparable with it. Every line in the architectural portion of the building is perfect. It is not over-imposing but it possesses a striking individuality, and the richness of the exterior is carried out on even a grander scale within.

The new courthouse is an addition to the old structure, and it was built in combination with the old building which has been entirely remodeled and renovated to match the new portion and the two with the last parts so nearly finished appear from the outside as one new building.

The court house is situated at the corner of Appleton street and Common street, facing the city hall, and occupying the entire block of land from Common street to the Essex street alley. Opposite the north side of the building is the city common, one of the most beautiful spots of the city.

Although the court house is not on the main street it is very near the heart of the city. Hardly a better location could be desired than the present one.

The building is the result of the indefatigable efforts of Judge DeCourcy. Viewed from Appleton street the architectural points of the building are very apparent. The great sand-stone columns rising a hundred feet or more are striking. Two of these columns are on either side of the massive granite entrance, and setting on bases of solid granite blocks, ten feet square, are surmounted with highly ornamental Corinthian capitals. Directly to the rear of these round columns are square red sand-stone columns mounting to an equal height and surmounted with appropriate capitals.

Between the pillars of the entrance is a granite arch of exquisite beauty, and above this is a brown sand-stone scroll and the seal of Essex County is inscribed within it. A stone balustrade, or porch, is just above the seal and is accessible from the spacious room of the Essex Bar, from which three windows look out upon it.

At the summit of the columns huge iron girders stretch across the intervening space and above that is a layer of sand-stone which presents a solid front.

Still higher, and almost an equal in height, the city hall tower is the cupola of the court house. This is of red sand-stone and is capped with pyramidal gables. In this tower there is room for several persons to stand and from there can be obtained an excellent view of the city and surrounding country.

The style of architecture is Corinthian throughout. The attractive Corinthian carvings are above all the windows and exist in the cornices beneath the eaves.

From the rear the outside a pleasing appearance. This part of the whole structure was formerly the old building but has been altered so that it is symmetrical with the new. The style is the same and the difference in appearance, if there is any, is not appreciable. The exterior of the old building has been practically built anew. The veneering by the use of the same sort of brick as has been used in the construction of the new part, has been completed and the stages are now being taken down. The decoration of the old part is like the new.

There is nothing more stable or durable than the present foundation of the whole building. The old foundation has been fixed so as to be just as substantial as a solid ledge and is as firm as it is possible for human art to devise.

In making the foundation of the old building sufficient to support and to guarantee its supporting of the structure, the contractors dug down as far as the base of the old foundation. This wall was thoroughly wet down and a frame was built of planks. The space was completely filled with packed Portland cement which was allowed to dry. The frame work was removed and the space occupied by it filled it with soil. The original foundation was not laid in mortar, being simply pointed on the inside. The present cement and concrete fills all the crevices and holes in the old stone work, forming a composite mass as solid as rock from one end to the other.

On top of the already sound base was placed a concrete of the old building taken out of the wall of the old court house, which had been ground into small pieces. After this mixture had set granite blocks were laid and then the brick and sand-stone work commenced without hindrance. Between the bricks of the veneering and the old wall Portland cement mortar has been placed to cause both walls to adhere. The wall has been made extra solid by a scheme well known to the industry of masonry. This scheme prevents the wall from bulging one way or the other. It is seen from the common the old common street entrance is conspicuous by its absence and in its stead is an artistic bay window. The cornice of the bay window is of copper, giving it a finished appearance.

The side of the building next the alleyway is in appearance the same as before alteration. All the window frames of that side are coated with copper and the wire glass is used exclusively on that side. The use of the copper coating and wire glass is a guard against a possible fire in adjoining buildings.

On the roof of the old building two large metallic ventilators have been placed to furnish ventilation on the old building.

On top of the foundation after the rough portion of the wall had been laid, new and handsome granite from New Hampshire quarries was placed. On the fancy granite the brick and red sand-stone work was commenced. The sand stone is brought in from the west and the brick, such as used throughout the building, is known as vitrified brick and is manufactured in New Jersey. The brick is as hard as iron and has a peculiar iron ring.

The foundation of the four monster columns is a great and solid mass of the granite from the old building. The foundation is about thirty feet long, fifteen feet wide and eight feet deep. On this foundation four blocks, two finely worked granite blocks, with polished panels which are to remain plain. On these granite blocks the columns rest.

The exterior work on the building is about finished, all that remains to be done being the whitening of the walls with acid and other matters of a trivial nature. Work on the interior is progressing rapidly and in perhaps a couple months the whole building will be ready for occupancy. At present however to one not acquainted with the work of the contractor it appears an almost hopeless mess. The builders place the date of completion at two months.

One room in the building will no doubt be in use by the latter part of this week the furniture to be used in it is not new.

All the materials have arrived and work is going on with rapidly. Without a mishap things will be finished as anticipated.

The interior of the entire structure is commodious and convenient and has many advantages that were not in the old structure, and it has numerous advantages over the court house at Salem which has heretofore held the prestige in this county.

The west end of the cellar is to be a kind of storeroom, and through this and other materials needed in the buildings will be taken to all parts of the building. There will be a means by which such things can be brought into the basement. In this division of the cellar is the general south-bound 3x4 feet. This board has six switches and four meters. One meter is for the motor that runs the fan that drives the air and fresh air throughout the various rooms; another is for recording the electricity used in the electric lighting of the new building; the third for the lighting of the old building; and the fourth to record the power used in running the electric pump.

In the eastern part of the cellar beneath the new structure are two other large south-boards, by which the lights in the different rooms of the building are governed.

In another division of the cellar adjoining is the indirect heating apparatus which supplies either heat or cold air to the building, according to which is desired.

Cold air is obtained from a large subway beneath the cellar, large enough to drive a wagon through. This shaft is connected with a great chimney, with a copper hood to prevent the drawing of any dust from the streets or atmosphere, the suction of cold air through the tunnel is caused by the great fan that has 200 revolutions per minute.

At the front of the subway for cold air is a long brick pier on which is set in cold 200 feet of steam piping. The fan which the fresh air from the subway through these steam pipes which can be heated or left cold, according to the weather, and then drives it to every room. If cold air is needed the janitor can shut off the steam and supply cold fresh air by turning the fan motor. This means of indirect heating and cooling is now in vogue in all modern and up-to-date structures.

The motor is of the twenty horsepower variety. The fan, or blower, is made by the Boston Blower Company and was furnished by the firm of W. F. Butler and Co. The motor was supplied by the Lawrence Electrical and Supply company which did all the electrical work throughout the building. A fine job of wiring was done in the building by this firm.

Leading off the main cellar is the boiler room. There are two fifty horsepower low pressure boilers made by Edward McCabe and Sons, the local boiler manufacturers. The boilers are of the tubular style. Attached to the boilers is an automatically working electric bell which indicates high or low water in the boilers. The boilers are regulated by a Spencer automatic damper.

Off the boiler room is a coal bin under the old building, which now contains 125 tons of soft coal of the original building a room has been set apart for a prisoner's cell room. This will accommodate about 25. The prisoners for the criminal sessions are usually brought to the court house in the jail wagon. An officer will be kept at the cell room and prisoners are wanted they will be taken to the court room.

The entrance to the prisoners' room is on the east end of the old building and the prisoners' apartments are on the right going down. On the left of the descending stairs is a lavatory finished with a marble partition with a marble floor and modern open plumbing. The floor is of mosaic tiling.

The first floor of the old part has been changed and is now arranged very conveniently. On the left of the main corridor preceding from the eastern end, Jackson street end, the first room is the grand jury witness room, the second is the grand jury, and the next is the room of the janitor of the building. On the right, still in the old portion, is the county Treasurer's office which is to be supplied with counters, safe, etc. The treasurer will be in his office during the sittings of court. The next room is the District Attorney's, and will have a public room and private office. This is one of the rooms of the old building which has been suitably partitioned off. The County Treasurer's office is the next in order along the corridor and is where the entrance to the old court house, from Common street, formerly was. It has been made into one of the nicest rooms of the whole building, with a large brick bay window facing Common street. The old room of the Registry of Deeds office is the next on the right.

The hallways of the old and new part are endless, the exception that at night the door is to shut fire proof doors thus separating the old and the part.

All the baseboards of the hallways are of marble. The floors in the old and new part are Mosaic tiling. The stairs from the corridor to the prisoners' room and general toilet room are composed of marble.

The dado in the hallways and various rooms is composed of Keene cement which is imported from England. This cement is as hard as marble and is to be finished in lead and oil painting. The walls above and the ceiling will be painted in water colors.

The doors all through are of massive quartered oak with translucent French plate glass panels on which will be inscribed the name of each room. The windows toward the alley are of fire proof glass which in case of fire will not break and fall in or out. This glass is manufactured with a fine wire screen in the center of it. All the other windows of the building are very heavy American plate glass. The window sills in the new building are slabs of handsome marble, and the thresholds are of the same. The window sills in some of the old windows are great sheets of marble, several feet long and some of them are nearly a yard wide. Nothing like them is to be found in a building in the vicinity.

The janitor's room is to be equipped with a long distance telephone, and with a Western Union Messenger call alarm. There will be electric bells to and from every important room in the buildings. A local telephone system will also be established with all rooms so that the janitor can be reached without trouble from anywhere in the building. Push buttons from the janitor's room to the man at the boiler are to be installed.

In the new part of the building on Common street side is a large commodious cellar under the office of the Registry of Deeds. The toilet room there has a Mosaic floor and fine white tile walls. This cellar has marble wash basins with hot and cold water for the accommodation of the occupants of the Registry of Deeds office. From this room ascends a flight of fine compost stairs leading to the Registry of Deeds Record room. At the head of the stairs from the basement is a door which leads to the old Registry of Deeds office, now to be used as a comparing room for the clerks.

The floor of the new Record room is of black and white Mosaic tiling in decorative design. The baseboards are of marble and the dado is Keene cement. In the center of the north side of the room will be a magnificent marble fire place both for ventilation and appearance.

The window sills are of black and white marble.

All the windows of the main part are American plate glass of extra heavy quality. In the Registry of Deeds Record room there are ten very large windows. One of these windows, including the glass and the frames weighs 428 pounds. The windows throughout the building are hung on metallic chains with brass pulleys. This room will be eight drop chandeliers and there will be six clusters of incandescent lights.

The furniture to be used in the Record room when the whole is completed will be of steel, including the book cases, law books, etc. This is a precaution against fire.

No gas is to be used in the building for lighting purposes.

From the main entrance to the Record hall are two fire proof doors. With these are to be two oak doors with panels inscribed "Record Hall".

As one enters from the front of the building beneath the granite arch are two solid oak doors with massive carvings upon them. After passing a flight of iron stairs other doors are reached.

On either side of the iron stairway are solid blocks of marble facing the sides, and above the marble the wall is finished with plaster work and is one of the prettiest places in the building. This is known as the outer corridor and at the top is a pair of massive oak doors and on each side are magnificent bronze pilasters. There are also glass side lights instead of solid walls.

A few steps farther in are four massive pillars of onyx. Two are circular while two in the wall have square tops. The dado in the first corridor is made of Bedford, Va. marble. The floors are of Mosaic tiling.

To the right is entered the Probate court room which is carpeted with a costly Brussels carpet. The baseboards of this room are quartered oak and the walls will be painted in oil and the ceilings in water colors.

The furniture, as in almost every part of the building, will be entirely new.

Off the Probate Court room is the female witness room and this will be fitted with a fireproof and mantelpiece and ladies' toilet room.

There is a general lavatory off the main hallway left of the witness room and the Probate Court room. In this part all needed conveniences. The walls are of tiling and marble and the floor of Mosaic.

Proceeding along the main entrance, just beyond the onyx columns, is reached a large marble stairway. At the base is a marble post and the railings are marble. The staircases lead to the second floor, or gallery, the four sides of which are marble and Keene cement work. The railway is of iron.

Surrounding the balcony will be enclosed the large criminal court room of the old building, the new civil court room in the new part, two judges' rooms, a consultation room, the Essex Bar room and the Lawrence Law Library.

The Law Library is a high studded room with Mosaic floor. The marble baseboards and dado is similar to other parts of the building. Spiral stairs lead to the balcony which will be used exclusively for books and other cases. These cases will be made of steel and the shelving will be of the same material. There will be a marble mantle and fireplace, quite similar to the one in the Registry of Deeds office, directly below. In this library an assistant librarian, a young lady, will be constantly in attendance. The library will be fitted with tables and chairs and will be a place of study and of quiet.

The sum of $1,500 is to be expended yearly for five years to purchase new books and legal documents for the library.

The law library is a thing that has been wanted here for years and the local lawyers are anxious for its opening.

The Essex Bar has a large room, and three large windows are in the front. The floor is of Mosaic tiling with a border of red, black and white. The baseboards are of marble and the dado is Keene cement. Off to one side is a lavatory. Set in the wall in this room is a switch board controlling the lights in the library, Essex Bar and Consultation room.

The Superior Civil Court room is high studded and is finished in quartered oak. The work in this room is excellently done. The doors are paneled with French plate glass. The ceiling is finished in stucco work and is simple of design and very neat.

There are three convenient entrances to the judges' rooms, two from the balcony on one side and one on the other side of the room.

Continuing along to balcony to the south there is a flight of stairs leading up and after passing through another corridor the third story balcony is reached. From this balcony can be entered three judges' rooms.

Around the dome is a large circle of windows and behind this are 150 invisible incandescent 15 candle-power lights. The rays of these lights illuminate all the galleries, corridors and stairways.

In the large space between the sky-lights are four clusters of 32 condenser power incandescent lights.

On the third story balcony are 16 clusters of incandescent lights.

The balcony of the second floor runs four square sides with ribbed pillars of Corinthian capitals. Between these are designs of semi-circles which form a complete chain around the balcony. The dado work is plain white and the cornice work is of the egg and dart design.

The under floors throughout the new part are concrete, composed of Portland cement and crushed granite. This is supported by iron beams and columns.

From the first balcony there are two entrances to the old court room which has been completely renovated and remodeled. Two fire-proof doors separate this part from the new. These doors are to be shut at night and when the court is not in session.

This old court room, now called the criminal court room, is to be refurnished. A fine Brussels carpet will be laid and it will be lighted by large electric chandeliers. The judge, clerk, sheriff and officers of the court, and the jurors will be seated and the bar, spectators and audience will be on the level.

Off the court room, to the north east corner, what used to be the witness room is now to be used as the Deputy Sheriff's office. It will be fitted with lockers and other conveniences.

To the left, the room formerly occupied by the county treasurer, is now a consultation room.

The general public will use the same stairways to enter the criminal court room as before the alterations.

All the floors not carpeted or not mentioned as tile, which are the ladies' witness room, two judges' rooms, and two jury rooms, are laid in Georgia Pine.

The building is so constructed that it would be impossible to burn any part of the new building. The protection against fire is very complete in every way. On the east side of the old building is a standard water pipe to which will be attached fire hose on each landing of the first, second and third floors. The line of hose will easily reach any room on the floor. Each room will be fitted with fire extinguishers of the most approved kind.

No News of Mrs. Kelleher

Although strenuous efforts are being made by the relatives of Mrs. Ellen Kelleher, who disappeared on the way from this city to San Francisco, the police of San Francisco, Albany, N. Y., and this city, nothing has developed to throw any light upon the whereabouts of the woman or where she apparently dropped from sight.

Mrs. Kelleher left this city on July 27, en route for San Francisco, where she was to visit relatives and her niece in this city went with her as far as the station. Her ticket on the railroad was collected as far as Albany. Her baggage has arrived in San Francisco, and her disappearance is causing great anxiety among her relatives on both sides of the continent.

The description of Mrs. Kelleher is that of a woman 72 years old, large and stout, weighing between 120 and 130 pounds. She is nearly six feet tall. She has grey streaked hair and blue eyes. When leaving Lawrence she wore a black hat, black shoulder cape, striped shirt waist and a black and white dotted skirt.

"I feel sure that Mrs. Kelleher has locked herself up to die, and at this moment is dying or dead in some town between Albany and Buffalo."

So said Mrs. Maria Smith, niece of the missing woman, Mrs. Ellen Kelleher, who left this city July 27 bound for San Francisco, but never reached there, and has only been traced to a point somewhere between Albany and Buffalo.

"It was always her way," continued Mrs. Smith, "to shut herself up when anything went wrong with her, to lock herself into her room till she got better. Every one of her generation has died of apoplexy, and she has had several temporary attacks of it lately. I feel certain that aunt got off the train not feeling well, rented a room somewhere, and left word not to be disturbed."

"I have known her to take a room and would make a large deposit on it so that nobody would bother her for weeks. I think she did so in this case, and had a shock which either killed her or made her helpless, so that she would die a lingering death."

"I don't believe she was robbed, for she never carried much more than enough for her travelling expenses in actual cash, and her appearance would not lead anyone to think she had much money."

"Some disaster overtook her, because the woman never failed to carry out her plans just as she laid them. Every detail of her daily life was planned out weeks in advance, and only the most extraordinary events would make her change the schedule."

"I would have gone part way with Mrs. Kelleher myself, for she is 70 years old, and I didn't want her to make such a trip alone, but she left without giving me notice or telling anyone up to the last moment. I don't know why she went."

Mrs. Kelleher, by thrift and attention to business as a hotel servant girl, accumulated $40,000, on the income of which she has lived in her old age. This money, well-invested in real estate in Lawrence, and San Francisco, is alleged by friends of the family to have made the old lady a bone of contention between her niece in Lawrence and Mrs. Margaret Dunn, another niece in San Francisco. What Mrs. Kelleher was visiting on, she would try to get her away. Lately she sold out her property in Lawrence for $3000, and some who knew the woman well say she had interests unsuspected by her niece which would account for her stopping off quietly to attend to them, and they still hope for her ultimate safe appearance.

Mrs. Kelleher was bound for San Francisco to visit her niece, Rachel Dunn, at 28 Golden Gate avenue. Mrs. Kelleher's baggage and $3000 in money has reached San Francisco long since.

It is thought that she disappeared somewhere between Albany and Buffalo, as there is no indication of her ticket being used beyond Albany.

The Lawrence police and the authorities of San Francisco are endeavoring to gain a clue of her whereabouts.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box 25c.

NORTON BREAKS GOLF RECORD.

At the Merrimack Valley Country club on Monday G. N. Norton played the best golf seen on the country club links this season. In fact, the score made by him breaks all previous amateur records of the course as at present laid out, and established new records for both 18 and 36 holes.

Four successive rounds of the course, 36 holes were played, in competition with P. A. McGrath, the well known professional, and L. D. Norton, Jr. Norton's card, as returned, is as follows:

Holes	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Bogey	4	5	6	4	3	5	5	4	4
First round	3	6	5	5	3	5	5	3	4
Second round	3	6	5	4	4	5	5	3	4
Third round	5	5	5	3	3	5	5	3	4
Fourth round	4	5	5	5	2	5	5	4	4

Total 167.

The last 18 holes were played in the splendid score of 81, one stroke under bogey, which establishes a new record for 18 holes and lowers the best previous record made this season, which was 82, by L. D. Norton, his brother.

Mr. Norton is the present club champion, having won the Howe cup and championship of the club last fall.

LAKE WINNIPESAUKEE A BEAUTIFUL SPOT IN NEW HAMPSHIRE EASILY REACHED.

Renowned as a summer resort and famous for its fishing, Lake Winnepesaukee seems to hold sway as the most popular section of New Hampshire. Indeed it would be approaching the impossible to select another spot where such ideal features enter into the making up.

Environments not beautiful but simply magnificent; in the distance the White Mountains with their Titan King, Mt. Washington, looks down with the neighboring Mt. Madison close by its side. And enjoyment, there is something to amuse one all the time, first a coaching party through the neighboring towns, then a hop at this or that hotel, a paddle in the canoe, a fishing expedition in the direction of Annisquam or that famous trip the sixty mile sail over the lake on the Steamer Mt. Washington.

Do you seek a delightful haven on the lake? Well, only choose, for you have Weirs, Wolfeboro, Alton, Alton Bay, Centre Harbor and Bear Island and the other beautiful islands; all these resorts reached in a short while by drive or sail.

Lake Winnepesaukee is only two hours ride from Boston on the Boston & Maine Railroad, and the round trip for the summer is $4.50 to Weirs or Wolfeboro and $4.00 to Alton Bay. Board at hotels or farm houses from $5.00 up.

T.A. Holt & Co.

ANDOVER

Telephone 14-3.

..BUY A.

NICE RESIDENCE

IN ANDOVER.

Best Location

in Town,

A BARGAIN.

—APPLY TO—

GEO. H. PEARSON,

"Hill Farm," Andover.

You Should Investigate

MAY'S SLIDING

WINDOW SCREEN

MAY'S INVISIBLE

WEATHER STRIP.

IRA ABBOTT, - 61 Chestnut St.

Telephone 32-2

Order direct or of

The Young Supply Co.

1 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

BOEHM'S CAFE.

THE DELMONICO OF LAWRENCE.

Table d'hote from 12 to 4

CUISINE UNEXCELLED.

78 - 85 ESSEX ST.

Loftus & Roebuck

(Successor to JOHN S. DEARBORN)

..PAINTERS..

Paper Hangers

and Decorators.

Graining, Glazing, White Washing, Kalsomining.

We have all the latest designs in Wall Papers and Moulding at the lowest prices, which will be pleased to show you at your residence, or our Office, 27-29 Park St.

Mail orders promptly attended to. Open Tuesday evening, until 8 p.m.

The Hanging of Paper a Specialty.

PRIVATE SCOTT REPORTS

"I find the women who attend social functions work harder than the men at business. They suffer greatly from acidity of the stomach, restlessness, bad taste in the mouth, and raising of bitter fluid, their tongues are coated, they have little appetite, and are troubled with headache, sleeplessness and constipation, also occasional nausea.

The Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, however, never fail to bring health again to these sufferers. I tell all of the relief and benefits gained by using the wonderful Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets and of E. M. & W. A. Allen's absolute guarantee of satisfaction or refund of money."

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are Warranted to Cure all forms of Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

Money will be refunded, exactly as printed on package, in case of dissatisfaction. Price, 25 cents, at our store or by mail.

E. M. & W. A. ALLEN, Druggists

RAISE MORE AND LESS WORK

SEE
E. C. PIKE
THE PLUMBER

BOSTON AND MAINE RAILROAD. Summer Arrangement, in effect June 15, 1908.

ANDOVER TO BOSTON. A. M. 6.50 acc. in Boston 7.36 ex. ar. 8.05; 7.41 acc. ar. 8.36; 8.03 acc. ar. 8.51; 9.21 acc. ar. 8.54; 9.33 ex. ar. 10.05; 10.28 ex. ar. 11.02; 11.10 acc. ar. 12.00 M. 12.11 ex. ar. 12.45; 12.57 acc. ar. 1.32; 1.18 acc. ar. 2.12; 2.55 acc. ar. 3.48; 2.49 acc. ar. 3.35; 4.10 acc. ar. 5.04; 5.50 acc. ar. 6.43; 7.15 acc. ar. 8.02; 8.42 acc. ar. 10.30. SUNDAY: A. M. 7.34 ex. ar. 8.28; 8.33 ar. 9.27; 12.21 ar. 1.24; P. M. 4.26 ex. ar. 5.18; 5.53 ar. 6.55; 6.59 ar. 7.51; 9.01 ex. ar. 9.45; 11 ar. 10.14. All but 5.01 p. m. train are accommodations.

BOSTON TO ANDOVER. A. M. 5.59 ar. in And. 6.44; 6.59 acc. 7.30 ar. 8.18; 9.25 ar. 10.23; 10.15 acc. ar. 11.18; 10.45 acc. ar. 11.33; 11.50 ar. 12.40; 12.25 ar. 1.00; 2.15 acc. ar. 3.02; 3.30 acc. ar. 4.07; 3.36 acc. ar. 4.40; 4.59 ex. ar. 5.57; 5.14 ex. ar. 5.48; 5.52 acc. ar. 6.43; 6.54 acc. ar. 6.52; 6.55 acc. ar. 7.31; 7.02 acc. ar. 7.53; 9.39 acc. ar. 10.22; 11.15 ar. 11.58. SUNDAY: A. M. 8.00 acc. ar. 9.02; 12.00 ar. 12.45. P. M. 2.15 acc. ar. 3.05; 5.00 acc. ar. 6.00; 6.00 ex. ar. 6.44; 8.40 acc. ar. 9.25.

ANDOVER TO LOWELL. A. M. 7.41 arrive in Low. 8.34; 8.21 ar. 8.49; 9.09 ar. 9.30; 9.22 ar. 10.32; 10.33 ar. 11.00; 11.10 ar. 11.41. P. M. 12.37 ar. 1.05; 2.49 ar. 3.19; 4.10 ar. 4.45; 5.50 ar. 6.20; 7.15 ar. 7.48; 8.42 ar. 9.10. SUNDAY: A. M. 8.33 ar. 9.17; P. M. 12.21 ar. 1.02; 4.26 ar. 4.57; 5.53 ar. 6.25; 9.11 ar. 9.40.

LOWELL TO ANDOVER. A. M. 6.50 ar. 8.18; 8.30 ar. 8.57; 9.25 ar. 10.23; 10.50 ar. 11.26. P. M. 12.05 ar. 12.40; 2.30 ar. 3.02; 2.55 ar. 3.18; 3.55 ar. 4.40; 5.00 ar. 5.37; 6.15 ar. 6.52; 7.00 ar. 7.31; 9.25 ar. 10.22; 11.25 ar. 11.58. SUNDAY: A. M. 8.15 ar. 9.02. P. M. 12.05 ar. 12.45; 6.30 ar. 6.00; 8.45 ar. 9.25.

WEDNESDAYS AND SATURDAYS.
ANDOVER TO LAWRENCE. A. M. 6.40; 7.12 ar. 7.38; 7.53; 8.07; 9.00; 9.27; 10.15; 10.55; 11.55. P. M. 12.25; 1.00; 1.45; 2.30; 3.55; 4.40; 5.18; 6.44; 9.25.

LAWRENCE TO ANDOVER. A. M. 6.40; 7.12 ar. 7.38; 7.53; 8.07; 9.00; 9.27; 10.15; 10.55; 11.55. P. M. 12.25; 1.00; 1.45; 2.30; 3.55; 4.40; 5.18; 6.44; 9.25.

SUNDAY: A. M. 7.25; 8.18 P. M. 12.10; 4.20; 5.35; 6.46; 8.55; 9.04.

ANDOVER TO SALEM, MASS. A. M. 6.55; ar. 8.48; 7.41 ar. 8.40; P. M. 12.40 ar. 1.57; 1.18 ar. 2.38; 1.10 ar. 5.04; 5.37 ar. 6.58.

SALEM TO ANDOVER, MASS. A. M. 7.00 ar. 8.21; 7.05 ar. 8.18; 8.54 ar. 10.23; 10.30 ar. 11.26; 11.25 ar. 12.37; 12.05 ar. 3.02; 4.15 ar. 5.37; 4.51 ar. 5.50; 5.51 ar. 7.15; 16.37 ar. 7.53.

GOING EAST. A. M. 6.55; 7.12; 8.18; 8.30; 9.00; 9.27; 10.15; 10.55; 11.55. P. M. 12.25; 1.00; 1.45; 2.30; 3.55; 4.40; 5.18; 6.44; 9.25.

GOING NORTH, VIA MANCHESTER. A. M. 8.18; 8.30; 9.00; 9.27; 10.15; 10.55; 11.55. P. M. 12.25; 1.00; 1.45; 2.30; 3.55; 4.40; 5.18; 6.44; 9.25.

* To and from North Side.
† Via Wakefield Junction.
‡ Portland Through Train.
§ Connects at South Lawrence with Portland Express.

• Stops only to leave passengers.
• Runs until Sept. 19, 1908.
• Runs until Sept. 19, 1908.
• To Haverhill only.
• Connects to Newburyport.
• Via Wilmington Junction.
• Connects to Georgetown.
• Change at North Andover.
• Dover.
• Salem.
• No. Berwick.
• Change at South Lawrence.
D. J. FLANDERS, G. P. & T. A.

POST-OFFICE, - ANDOVER, MASS.

Arthur Bliss, P. M.

Open from 7.00 A. M. to 8.00 P. M.

Money Order Hours, 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Hours on Legal Holidays, 8 to 9.30, 5.30 to 6.00

MAILS READY FOR DELIVERY.

8.30 a. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

8.40 a. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

1.15 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

1.30 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

4.45 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

5.15 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

5.45 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

5.50 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

6.00 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

6.15 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

6.30 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

6.45 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

6.50 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

7.00 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

7.15 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

7.30 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

7.45 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

8.00 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

8.15 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

8.30 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

8.45 p. m. from Boston, New York, South, West, and Lawrence.

Around the County.

METHUEN.

Miss Helen Tenney is visiting in New York city.

Mrs. Charles R. Bower of Oakland avenue is ill.

Edward D. Johnson has been visiting in Amesbury.

No arrests were made Saturday or Sunday by local officers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. White of Cambridge spent Sunday in town.

The Congregational choir is back again after a two weeks' vacation.

Methuen cricket team was defeated by the Mohawks by the score of 33 to 32 Saturday.

The gold watch lost by Miss Katherine Doran was found and returned to the owner.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Merrill and Miss Eva Merrill spent Sunday at Squantum.

John D. Emerson spent Sunday at Salisbury beach with his family, who are staying there.

Fred Haigh of Broadway has removed to the Slater house on Oakland avenue.

G. Meon-Messer, who is spending his vacation at Hampton, was in town Sunday.

Repairs are being made on the interior of the Currier school in the east part of the town.

Miss Lucy Hildreth of Beverly is visiting at the residence of Fred M. Page of Gage street.

Luke C. May and Arthur Archambault have gone into the electrical business for themselves.

Misses Elizabeth and Bertha Jewett have returned from a visit with relatives in Amesbury.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Brady and so many enjoyed the week at the Lake wood cottage, Canobie lake.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Colby have returned from a two weeks' stay at Sunapee, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Johnson, C. H. Rogers, Kimball G. Colby, Charlmund White and Caroline S. Snaver have returned from Wood, Me., where they have been spending the past two weeks.

The Methuen baseball team defeated the Emeralds of Framingham, Mass., by the score of 11 to 1 on Flocke's field Saturday. The local team was composed of the following players: T. Chateau, C. G. Blouin Jr., B. Greenwood Jr., C. Mercer, C. B. Greenwood, J. J. Spotswood, J. N. Greenwood, J. J. Corey, J. S. O'Connell, C. H. Rogers, Kimball G. Colby, Charlmund White and Caroline S. Snaver. The features of the game were: home run by C. Greenwood, home run by Covey, with two on base, and double play by B. Greenwood and Mercer. The prospects made their run on wild throws. Next Saturday the Methuens play at the home of the Amesbury association of Lawrence.

A PLEASANT OCCASION.

The spacious lawn adjoining the residence of Nathan Smith on Pelham street was the scene of a delightful occasion Monday night when the members of the class of '08, Methuen High school tendered a surprise party to one of the popular members of that class, Miss Bessie Gilman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis B. Gilman.

The affair was a complete success. The lawn where the party was held is directly opposite the Gilman residence, and furnished an admirable place for the event. It was prettily decorated with lanterns strung about the trees. The guests were all made welcome by Miss Gilman, the hostess.

That anything was being prepared in her honor. When all was ready, and the members of the class with some invited guests were all assembled, Miss Gilman was surprised to be informed that the event was in her honor.

The evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner. During the evening Miss Gilman was presented with a fine croquet set, Charles Robinson making the presentation. Miss Gilman responded in a fitting manner.

A delightful play, entitled, "Cinderella," arranged by Mrs. Dorwood, was given by way of entertainment, and was greatly enjoyed. The piazza was used for the stage and was brilliantly lighted. Those who took part were: Charles Robinson, Prince; Helen Frederick, Cinderella; Marion Doward, Fairy God Mother; Emma Bugbee, Queen; Clarence Smith, King; Ruth Norris, Mother; Florence Dodge and Blanch Silver, Ugly Sisters.

Sidney Cook, Herald.

Miss Gilman and her brother rendered musical selections. Games were then enjoyed. A peanut hunt was participated in on the lawn, and prizes were given. The winners were Charles Robinson, first prize; Helen Frederick, second prize; Marion Doward and Sidney Cook, consolation prizes.

About 9 o'clock, on account of the rain which began to fall, the party went to the residence of Miss Gilman across the street, and there a social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served. The party broke up at a seasonable hour.

Included among those present were the following: Emma Bugbee, Orris Bridge, Sidney Cook, Peggy Cushings, Florence Dodge, Marion Fisher, Helen Frederick, Fred Fisher, Arline Goodwin, Effie Lyons, Annie Moody, Bessie Magoon, Mary Mulry, Ruth Norris, Rolf Norris, Clarence Pearce, Clarence Price, Charles Robinson, Edwin Russell, Helen Siloway, Andrew Siloway, Beatrice Spicer, Blanche Silver, and Katherine Donelson, of Evanston, Ill.

Miss Grace Paige is visiting in Springfield, N. H.

John G. Low has returned from a visit at the Weirs, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Kimball and daughter of Broadway are visiting relatives in Windham, N. H.

Mrs. J. F. Emerson is visiting Mrs. John W. Bailey of Arlington at one of the beaches near Plymouth.

Miss Fannie A. Reed has returned from Salisbury beach where she has been spending the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Johnson have returned to their home in Malden after a few days' visit in Methuen.

Announcement is made of the recent marriage of Miss Daisy Richardson and Mr. Woods of Dover, N. H.

Misses Nancy Woodburn and Annie Lewis are enjoying a few days' visit at Pelham, N. H., with friends.

Miss Bessie Gilman will spend the last two weeks of this year in and about Portland and Peaks Island.

Miss Edith M. Howe of Woburn is the guest at the residence of Alonzo Howe on Railroad street for a short stay.

A meeting of the general committee of the old home week observance will be held within a few days to adjust figures.

Miss Charlmund White will spend the next two weeks near Plymouth with her sister, Mrs. John W. Bailey of Arlington.

Mrs. Ida Davis and daughter, Mrs. Tyler of Milwaukee, Wis., are visiting at the residence of James O. Emerson on Gage street.

Thieves broke into the cellar of John Green on Prospect street Sunday night but took nothing of value. The local police have been notified.

Miss Angie Crapaud, bookkeeper for Edwin J. Castle, is enjoying a two weeks' vacation. Miss Sylvia P. Leavitt is taking her place while away.

A meeting of the school board was held on Wednesday night at the school house, and the discussion of matters pertaining to the ensuing school year.

Nelson Whittier, a native of Methuen and in Chicago, last Friday asked about $8,000. He was treasurer of the Whittier cotton mills of that place.

Rev. C. H. Oliphant will occupy his pulpit at the church given a long sermon Sunday and will conduct the Tuesday evening meeting next week.

Mrs. B. K. Hitchens and grandfather, Miss Katherine Donelson of Evanston, Ill., are visiting at the residence of Curtis B. Gilman, 34 Pelham street.

Several Methuen cases are scheduled to come up at the session of superior court to be held in September. The cases against Walter E. Goodwin are the most important as he is charged with two offenses, for either one of which he could be given a long sentence. Beside his cases there is that of James Bagley, who is alleged to have entered a house in the Arlington district and attempted to rob Geo. Tordoff, recently held for alleged larceny of $100 from his wife's sister, Michael F. Dunn, for alleged keeping of disorderly house, and giving liquor to prisoner, and Louise S. Larivee for lewdness, these two appealed cases, and a youth named Cullinane charged with breaking and entering and larceny. This is the largest number of local cases scheduled to be heard before grand jury for a long time.

GREETINGS FROM GENERAL METHUEN.

The secretary of the Methuen "Old Home Week" committee has received the following letter from General Methuen of England in reply to an invitation sent the distinguished gentleman to attend the town's recent "Old Home" observance.

General Methuen is a descendant of Lord Paul Methuen after whom the town was named. He was prominent as a general in the English-Boer war and today stands high in rank in the English army. It is to be regretted that he could not be present on the 30th but his letter gives hope that some day he will be able to visit the town bearing his name.

Kindly Mr. C. H. Oliphant, Esq., 147 Broadway, Esq., Methuen, Massachusetts, America.

My dear Sir:

The kind invitation from Methuen town which reached me on my return from London last night, I must express, Lady Methuen and my thanks to the "Old Home Week" committee for their kind thought.

We hope some year in the not far distant future to pay a visit to the town which we are honored to feel bears our names.

Yours faithfully,

Corham Court, Methuen.

30th July 1908.

METHUEN MAN ALL WITH GLANDERS.

The discovery has been made that Charles Beck, a well known farmer, living near Glen Forest in Methuen, is suffering from an attack of glanders, which he had contracted from a horse.

Some ten days ago Mr. Beck purchased a horse at an auction in Lowell. Monday sore broke out on one of Beck's hands and he called a physician. An examination by the physician showed that he had the glanders and a further investigation proved that the horse which he had recently bought, was badly affected with the disease.

Edwin J. Castle, the Methuen cattle inspector, was at once notified of the case and he summoned Dr. Austin Peters of Boston, chief of the state cattle bureau. Tuesday afternoon these two officials went to Beck's place and after examining the animal ordered it killed at once. This was done at five o'clock in the afternoon by James McGovern of Lawrence. The inspectors called for Beck and they were informed through Mr. McGovern that Beck was afflicted with the disease and had visited the Lawrence General Hospital where he was informed it might be necessary to amputate the arm to save his life.

Beck is suffering from several sores, and judging from the headway the disease had obtained the physicians fear more serious results than the amputation of his hand.

Beck is a farmer and has a family. He is about 45 years old.

Mr. Beck is being treated at the hospital but his arm was not amputated today, although this may be necessary within a day or two.

Inspector Castle said this morning that there were not to his knowledge, any more cases of glanders in Methuen.

LAWRENCE.

Hon. and Mrs. John Breen are at Sunapee, N. H.

A. X. Dooley is spending a few days at Hampton beach.

Miss Marie Tremblay is at Salisbury beach for two weeks.

Miss Mabel Hewitt is at Salisbury beach for two weeks.

Miss Mary McNamara is enjoying a sojourn at York beach, Me.

Joseph Carroll of Haverhill street is visiting at Bar Harbor, Me.

Patrick Roach of Garden street spent Sunday at Salisbury beach.

Miss Gertrude Emmett is spending a few days at Salisbury beach.

Lawrence Wood is spending his vacation at Lake Umbagog, N. H.

Charles McAlister spent Sunday at Salisbury and Hampton beaches.

Thomas McGregor of the Reid & Hughes store is at Hampton beach.

Frank O'Connor of the Empire laundry spent Sunday at Hampton beach.

William Miller of Prospect street will spend next week at Woonsocket, R. I.

Nicholas Barry and family of Oak street are at the Donlan cottage, Cashier.

Leo Hamel of Orchard street spent Saturday and Sunday at Salem Willows.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Harrington are spending three weeks at Salisbury beach.

Thomas Catter, the Essex street shoe dealer, spent Sunday at Salisbury beach.

Rodney Ford of Orchard street spent Sunday at the Belleville, Hampton beach.

Miss Mary Quane of Elm street will spend the next ten days at Salisbury beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howard of Sargent street spent Sunday at Salisbury beach.

Charles Rhoddy and Eugene B. Griffin are camping up river for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jette of Oxford street enjoyed Sunday at Salem Willows.

Master Charles A. Merrill of Lowell street is spending his vacation at Salisbury beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rowe of Jackson street are at the Waumpscott house, Jefferson, N. H.

J. Gilman Johnson of the Duck mill is returned from a week's outing at Hampton beach.

Mrs. Charles W. Miller of Prospect street is spending a few weeks vacation at Augusta, Me.

Miss Mollie Ryan of Chestnut Hill, Pa., is spending a few days with Mrs. Hildy of Tremont street.

Mrs. L. M. Bowring of this city is enjoying at Atlantic City, N. J., for a stay of a week or more.

Charles Coombs, the Essex street tumbler will spend a week in his new cottage at Salisbury beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hewitt of Lawrence street are enjoying three weeks' vacation at Salisbury beach.

Miss Mary Flanagan has returned home after a three weeks' enjoyment of the sea breezes at Bever beach.

Day Officer Charles A. Herrick with his family is spending a few days of his vacation at Hampton beach.

The Misses Jennie Rhodes and Bertha Blackwell of Water street are vacationizing at Old Orchard beach.

Policeman Edward A. Johnson of East Haverhill street started on his vacation Saturday. He will spend his respite down in Maine.

Rev. Henry Wood and Fred Hills spent Saturday and Sunday at Old Orchard, being registered at the "Velvet" Bros., is spending his vacation at Revere beach.

The family of T. F. O'Hearne, candidate for superintendent of schools, have returned from Salisbury, where they have been occupying their cottage all season.

Mrs. Mary Donlon of Philadelphia is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Farragher on Union street. The two latter with their guest will spend the next two weeks at Revere beach.

The Misses Tessie and Anna Lane have been summering at Bangor, Maine, to spend next week at Poland Springs after which they will spend the remainder of the season at Old Orchard beach.

Walter J. Crook has returned to his home in Beverly after a visit to this city. Mr. Crook was formerly an assistant superintendent for the Prudential life insurance company in this city, but is now located as superintendent in Salem and Beverly.

Miss Martha J. McLean of Waterbury, Conn., who has been a guest of Mrs. R. Harvey at her residence on Tower hill has returned to her home. Miss McLean took in all the beautiful scenery of Boston, Lawrence, Methuen, etc., and went away delighted with her visit.

Miss Theresa Wefers of 46 Trenton street, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burns, the Misses Elizabeth B. Agnes, Louise and Amelia Wefers, Henry Wefers, William Bagdon and Miss Katharine Easton will spend the latter part of this month and the early part of September at the spacious McGary cottage, Salisbury beach.

OFFICERS CHOSEN AT HEDDING.

HEDDING, Aug. 19.—At the annual meeting of the Hedding Chautauque association the following named officers were re-elected: President, the Rev. Otis Cole, Haverhill, Mass.; first vice president, Alanson Palmer, Brockton, N. Y.; second vice president, the Rev. H. D. Deetz, Haverhill, Mass.; third vice president, Miss S. Izetta Locke, Manchester, N. H.; fourth vice president, the Rev. W. S. Seale, Methuen, Mass.; secretary, Mrs. Lillian B. Folson, Rochester; treasurer, Alanson Palmer, Brockton, N. Y.; superintendent, the Rev. E. C. E. Dorion, Franklin Falls; board of managers, J. B. Upham, Boston; the Rev. J. W. Adams, Methuen, Mass.; Mrs. J. M. Garland, Amesbury, Mass.; Mr. M. H. Jones, Methuen, Mass.

CONTRACT LET FOR NEW ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.

The contract for building the new St. John's church has been given to L. N. Holden & Co. Mr. Holden will have the foundation started at once. The church will be severe in style. It will be unique in this region. Although there will not be much in the way of ornament, it will be a handsome church and an ornament to the city. The tower will not be

ESSEX SUPPLY COMPANY

Lawrence's Largest Credit Clothiers

WILL

Tuesday
Aug. 25

OPEN

289

Essex St.

THEIR NEW CUSTOM TAILORING DEPARTMENT

With the largest line of Strictly New Fall and Winter Suitings and Overcoatings ever shown in this city.

WATCH FOR THE OPENING.

North Andover News.

Miss Seeger of Jamaica Plain spent Sunday at the "Bush."

Eugene Foss of Hemlock Grove farm was at Hampton beach on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carr and daughter
Bertha were in Haverhill on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Smith of Morton street were at Salisbury beach on Sunday.

Miss Etta Foster of High street and Masters Hopwood passed Monday at Crescent beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith of Boston have left the Prospect house, after their customary stay.

The Crescents, a junior ball team of this town will play the Andover Nevers Sweets in town on Saturday.

Dr. Thomas Kittredge of Salem came over the road in his auto and passed Sunday at the Kittredge farm.

The Rev. J. P. Franks returned on Monday to Salem after visiting his sister Mrs. William G. Brooks.

Horace Foster accompanied by the Masters Hopwood of Litchfield, N. H., spent Saturday at Salisbury beach.

Mrs. Violet Dick and family of May street are moving today into the newly completed Mackie residence on Maple avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fernald and daughters Marion and Pauline of Pleasant street are enjoying the day at Salem Willows.

Miss Martha Keating of Cleveland street has returned home after a six week visit with relatives in Providence,
R. I., and Brooklyn, N. Y.

Master Allison Blackstock of Railroad avenue left yesterday for Amesbury where he will visit with relatives until Labor day.

Mr. and Mrs. Dana Hadley and daughters, Miss Harriet and Irene Belle go to Salisbury next Saturday for a short stay.

Mrs. Lyman O. Goodwin and son Francis of High street have been spending the last few days in Saugus visiting with relatives.

Mrs. George P. Taylor and children of Quincy Point are visiting with Mrs.
Taylor's parents Mr. and Mrs. George Gould on Osgood street.

Miss Margaret Miller has returned to her home on Maple avenue after a visit of several weeks with relatives in Littleton and Worcester, Mass.

Mrs. Ellen Butterworth of High street left on Saturday for Berwick, Me., where she will make a visit of a week with relatives and friends.

There is a large gang of men and teams at work on the repairs being made at the Haverhill end of the Haverhill and Andover street railway.

Miss Blagah Ellison of Stonington street has returned to her home after a visit with friends at Lake Placid in the Adirondacks in New York state.

It is generally reported that a blight has struck the potatoes in some sections of the town. This is one more misfortune added to the farmers' lot this year.

A small party from the Farnham district spent Sunday at Canobie lake.
In the party were Mrs. Frank H. Goodhue, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Swanback and Master Ira Goodhue.

The Misses Mary and Katherine Gillispie and the Misses Lizzie and Katherine Keating and Joseph and Thomas Gillispie and Vincent McParry passed
Saturday at Salem Willows.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah C. B. Unhardt and child of Pawwood N. J., are making a visit in town as guests of Mrs. Horace Stevens on Prospect street. They come from Toronto where they have been on a visit.

The Misses Alice, Sadie and May Stevens of East Braintree have returned to their home in that town after a week's visit at the residence of Mrs. Susan B. Mitchell on Maple avenue.

John J. Garvey the popular and accommodating letter carrier, connected with the local office leaves today on a fifteen days' vacation which he will spend at Spofford, N. H. William Kennedy will take his place as substitute carrier.

Contractor D. J. Costello was sometime ago given the contract for the repairs upon the Johnson High school and Stevens hall building. The labor for this work were made anew and Mr.
Costello, being the lowest bidder at this time, received the contract.

The Misses Lida and Mary Morrill have returned to their homes in the West after a few days' visit at the residence of Mrs. Chadwick on High street. The former is a teacher in the schools of Minneapolis Minn., and the latter in the schools of Anok of the same state.

The Yets will take a car from the Lawrence Transfer station on Thursday morning at about 7:15 o'clock rather than at 7:30 as previously stated.
There will be a large delegation of the members of the local association who will take in the Salem muster with the Lawrence vets. They will go in full uniform.

John A. Bedell of High street passed Sunday at Marblehead.

Charles J. Kelley and family spent Sunday at Salisbury beach.

John Dillon of Winchester spent Sunday at his home on Merrimack street.

Thomas Garner of Boston passed
Sunday at his home on Saunders street.

Samuel Smith has resumed his duties at A. P. Currier's store after a vacation of a week.

Miss Anna Belle Ellison is the guest of a school friend at Placid Lake in the Adirondacks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry White and Master Eddie Bedell were at Salisbury beach on Sunday.

Rev. M. A. Breed of Brockton preached an able sermon at the Congregational church on Sunday.

Leonard P. Johnson together with friends was at Salisbury and Hampton beaches on Sunday.

Mrs. Greeley of Exeter, N. H., is a guest at the residence of Arthur Higgins on Middlesex street.

The Rev. Mr. Con of Lowell was the preacher at the services held at the Methodist church on Sunday.

The Bradstreet colony, U. O. P. E., have purchased a new upright piano from Steinhardt, a Lawrence dealer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Van Buskirk of H Pond street are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a daughter.

At the meeting of the Bradstreet colony on next Monday evening Company A. James M. Craig, captain, will entertain.

Mrs. Walter Morse of Bradford was entertained as a guest at the residence of Charles J. Kelley on High street on Wednesday.

The Roger Wolcott boys have returned home after spending the greater part of the week in camp at Stetson's pond in Buxford.

The old buildings and what is known as the old shop at the Davis and Furber machine company's plant are being repainted.

Chief of Police and Mrs. Fred Marvin of Sutton street passed Wednesday in Boston where the chief transacted important business.

The officers of Rescue lodge, L. O. G. T., will be installed by lodge deputy William Boodle of Haverhill at their next meeting on Tuesday evening.

At the next meeting of Bradstreet colony, U. O. P. E., the entertainment program will be given by company B of which Samuel Gough is the captain.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rexford and daughter Helen of Dudley street, leave on Saturday for New York city where they will spend a period of two weeks.

Winslow Stowers of Dedham is a frequent visitor in town. He is spending a couple of weeks with his brother at his home on Bailey street in South
Lawrence.

Many favorable changes and improvements are being made at the rooms and house of the Cochichewick
S. F. E. Co., at the Centre. Painting is being done.

Miss Margaret Campbell of Ashland street and the Misses Keefe of Maple avenue have returned from Old Orchard beach where they have been spending a very pleasant vacation.

Many anglers seek the sport to be obtained at Lake Cochichewick on fishing days. They come from Lawrence and even from Lowell. Some are lucky and return home with fine strings of fish. White perch are being caught in large quantities.

It is understood that Chairman Patrick P. Daw of the board of selection has had a recent conference with President Sullivan of the Boston & Northeastern street railway system in regard to transfers in town and other matters of interest. A satisfactory understanding, it is said, has been reached, due to the efforts of Mr. Daw.

Gas has been lately introduced into the Merrimack school under the direction of the school committee. James W. Leitch did the work. One room together with the basements and hall-ways have been fitted with chandeliers.
Other rooms will be fitted as it is found convenient as the gas is already piped for the addition of lamps.

ANOTHER OLD ORCHARD EXCUR-SION THURSDAY, AUGUST 27th.
$1.50 ROUND TRIP VIA B. STON & MAINE RAILROAD.

Old Orchard is the best beach on the coast to spend a day, the midway where all the amusement features so funny, interesting and entertaining are collected, the famous ocean pier which is renowned, the beautiful bathing, the appetizing shore dinners, the delightful groves and woodland nearby all unite in making Old Orchard the most charming spot in the coast.

Another excursion via the Boston & Maine railroad from Lowell and Lawrence will take place on Thursday, Aug.
27th. The round trip rate is only $1.50, and a special train will leave North Lawrence at 8:40, South Lawrence at 8:45 and Lowell, Middlesex at 8:15 a.
m. Returning leave Old Orchard at 5:00 p. m.

Wilbur W. Ward was in Haverhill on Tuesday.

The Ping Pong club held an outing at Lake Cochichewick on Tuesday.

Miss Beatrice Phillips of High street is enjoying a two weeks' vacation from duties.

William Winkle and family of Sutton street passed a day this week at Salisbury beach.

Miss Lillian Phillips of High street is enjoying a vacation. She is passing today in Lowell.

A boy arrived recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bamford on Ray's View street.

Lots of local people are taking in the Methuen orange picnic at Low's Carnegie lake today.

Miss Beatrice Stott of North Billerica is spending a week at the residence of Peter Barrington on Union street.

Miss Emma Kershaw of Middlesex street is spending a week at L. W.
Chapman's lake today.

Miss Gertrude Brown of Waverly park has been spending a week at Salisbury beach and has returned home.

Miss Laura Jackson of Beverly street has returned home after spending a week with relatives in Lynn.

A. A. Currier of Lone Oak farm is attending the Old Home week observance of his native town, Wentworth, N. H.

Alfred Kerslaw of Middlesex street is enjoying a two weeks' vacation which he is spending in different places.

Smith Brothers are moving the goods of William Muckle from Sutton street to their new house on Maple avenue, today.

Angus Gallant who has been spending some time with relatives at the Centre is soon to return to Prince Edward Island.

Officer Charles McCarthy of Railroad avenue together with his wife and family enjoyed the day Sunday at Salisbury beach.

Miss Mary Murphy of Boston has been making a visit with her brother at his home on Railroad avenue, John L. Murphy.

John O'Brien of Cleveland street, together with a friend from Salem, was enjoying a day recently at Salem Willows the first of this week.

Miss Katherine Williamson of Dracott is the guest this week at the residence of James B. Miller on Massachusetts avenue.

Wallace Towne and Miss Margaret Martin enjoyed a day recently at Salisbury beaches, going from there into Boston on the boat.

John J. Thompson, station agent at the Marblehead station, was at Salem Willows Sunday together with a friend from Andover.

Miss Elizabeth MacAlmon has returned to her home of Second street after a week spent in Rochester, N. H., with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Chickering of
High street and Mr. and Mrs. Fred
March of Elm street passed Sun-
day at Salisbury beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Howes and family of May street are spending the last few days at Hampton
and Salisbury beaches.

Daniel Connors of First street is to move into the tenement now vacant in
the Murphy house at the corner of
Cleveland and Saunders street.

The gang of men at work upon the Haverhill and Andover street railway are now making repairs upon the part running through Railroad avenue.

Miss Elizabeth MacAlmon has returned to her home of Second street after a week spent in Rochester, N. H., with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Chickering of
High street and Mr. and Mrs. Fred
March of Elm street passed Sun-
day at Salisbury beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Howes and family of May street are spending the
last few days at Hampton
and Salisbury beaches.

Daniel Connors of First street is to move into the tenement now vacant in
the Murphy house at the corner of
Cleveland and Saunders street.

The gang of men at work upon the Haverhill and Andover street railway are
now making repairs upon the part running through Railroad avenue.

Miss Elizabeth MacAlmon has returned to her home of Second street after a week spent in Rochester, N. H., with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Chickering of
High street and Mr. and Mrs. Fred
March of Elm street passed Sun-
day at Salisbury beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Howes and family of May street are spending the
last few days at Hampton
and Salisbury beaches.

Daniel Connors of First street is to move into the tenement now vacant in
the Murphy house at the corner of
Cleveland and Saunders street.

The gang of men at work upon the Haverhill and Andover street railway are
now making repairs upon the part running through Railroad avenue.

Miss Elizabeth MacAlmon has returned to her home of Second street after a week spent in Rochester, N. H., with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Chickering of
High street and Mr. and Mrs. Fred
March of Elm street passed Sun-
day at Salisbury beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Howes and family of May street are spending the
last few days at Hampton
and Salisbury beaches.

Daniel Connors of First street is to move into the tenement now vacant in
the Murphy house at the corner of
Cleveland and Saunders street.

The gang of men at work upon the Haverhill and Andover street railway are
now making repairs upon the part running through Railroad avenue.

Miss Elizabeth MacAlmon has returned to her home of Second street after a week spent in Rochester, N. H., with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Chickering of
High street and Mr. and Mrs. Fred
March of Elm street passed Sun-
day at Salisbury beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Howes and family of May street are spending the
last few days at Hampton
and Salisbury beaches.

Daniel Connors of First street is to move into the tenement now vacant in
the Murphy house at the corner of
Cleveland and Saunders street.

The gang of men at work upon the Haverhill and Andover street railway are
now making repairs upon the part running through Railroad avenue.

Miss Elizabeth MacAlmon has returned to her home of Second street after a week spent in Rochester, N. H., with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Chickering of
High street and Mr. and Mrs. Fred
March of Elm street passed Sun-
day at Salisbury beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Howes and family of May street are spending the
last few days at Hampton
and Salisbury beaches.

Daniel Connors of First street is to move into the tenement now vacant in
the Murphy house at the corner of
Cleveland and Saunders street.

The gang of men at work upon the Haverhill and Andover street railway are
now making repairs upon the part running through Railroad avenue.

Miss Elizabeth MacAlmon has returned to her home of Second street after a week spent in Rochester, N. H., with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Chickering of
High street and Mr. and Mrs. Fred
March of Elm street passed Sun-
day at Salisbury beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Howes and family of May street are spending the
last few days at Hampton
and Salisbury beaches.

Daniel Connors of First street is to move into the tenement now vacant in
the Murphy house at the corner of
Cleveland and Saunders street.

The gang of men at work upon the Haverhill and Andover street railway are
now making repairs upon the part running through Railroad avenue.

Miss Elizabeth MacAlmon has returned to her home of Second street after a week spent in Rochester, N. H., with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Chickering of
High street and Mr. and Mrs. Fred
March of Elm street passed Sun-
day at Salisbury beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Howes and family of May street are spending the
last few days at Hampton
and Salisbury beaches.

Osgood Mills Outing.

The outing held by the Osgood Mills club on Saturday at Lake Cochichewick was a great success in every particular and much praise is given to the young ladies who constituted the committee in charge of the arrangements. There were also parties from the Smith & Dove mill in Andover and the Brown & Whittier mill in Lawrence on the beach on an outing, as well as many other parties. The young ladies of the committee were Miss S. B.
Murphy, Miss Mary Keenan and Miss Eva Strout.

The following are among those who enjoyed the Osgood mill outing held at Rever beach on Saturday: Charles E.
Stout, weaving overseer; Simeon
Wright, spinning overseer; David Jackson, carding overseer; John S.
Murphy, master mechanics; M. L. Mc-Donald, M. E. and Mrs. William Mowatt,
Miss May Mowatt, Miss Nellie Mowatt,
Raymond Mowatt, Murty Bolton, Frank O'Brien, Daniel Donovan, Dennis H. O'Shea, Arthur O'Shea, Mrs.
Marin Jackson, Miss Annie Jackson;
Bert Wexley, Miss Annie Connors,
Miss Mary Wall, J. Peter Phelan, Mrs.
Joseph A. Rand, George Rand, Miss
Olive Rand, Miss Annie Costello, Miss
Theresa Costello, Miss Esther Starling,
Miss Margaret Starling, O'Shea, Mrs.
Miss Kathryn, Keenan, Miss Lizzie Collins, Miss Margaret Collins, Miss Annie Collins, Miss Katherine Collins,
Miss Mary Collins, Mrs. William E.
Towne, Mrs. John McAllister, Miss Lillian O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. William O'Connor, William O'Brien, Jr., Henry J. Lambert, Miss May Lambert,
Henry M. Lambert, Miss Lizzie Walton, Miss Amy Walton, Miss Harriet Walton, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stott, Miss Matilda Ellison, Miss Mary Mc-Carthy, Miss Nellie Barrett, Miss Ethel
Walker, Miss Katherine M. Murphy, Miss Lena Dushan, Miss Edith Mahoney, James Haphey, John Kehoe, Miss Susie Taylor, James Greene, James Broadhead, Miss Nellie F. Murphy,
Miss Eva M. Strout, Miss Mary Keenan and Walter Wright.

BLUE STOCKINGS WIN ANOTHER HOME GAME.

The Blue Stockings baseball team were successful on Saturday in winning another contest on the home grounds much to the joy of their followers and the local public who greatly enjoy the sport. The game was played on the Tavern lot and a large crowd gathered to see the contest. A number of followers of the visiting team were on hand. The Reverend Athletic Association team of Nashua were defeated by the score of 10 to 8. Both teams put up a lasting fight and played well in every particular. The game, Kelly scored particularly for the home team and succeeded in getting a home run, a three bagger, a two bagger and a single. Stark pitched a good game and the new man on the team, Rhodes from Boston, was a first class ball. The line up of the Blue Stockings was the same as usual except for Rhodes.

OFFICERS INSTALLED LAST NIGHT.

The officers elected at a recent meeting of the Rescue lodge, L. O. G. T., were installed by Lodge Deputy William Boodle and suite of Longfellow lodge, Haverhill, Tuesday evening. He was assisted in installing by J. H.
Green and Mrs. Dean of Haverhill.
There was a large delegation of visitors from the Longfellow lodge of Haverhill present on the occasion. Mrs.
Dow of Manchester, N. H., was a visiting good templar. The officers of the lodge installed were: William S.
Thompson, chief templar; Miss Lillian Pond, vice templar; Ernest Bamford, treasurer; James Bamford, financial secretary; E. E. Heald, recording secretary; Alfred Kershaw, marshal; Mrs.
Curtis Foss, chairman; Chin Ying, guard; and William Bamford, sentinel.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wardwell of Winthrop are making a visit of a few days with relatives in town.

Mrs. John S. Murphy of Main street is spending some time at Salisbury beach together with friends.

Supt. Gle is progressing with the work of macadamizing Water street from Elm street to Clarendon street.

George Wooley of Pleasant street has returned to his duties in the Davis and Furber office after a week's vacation.

Dr. and Mrs. D. S. Hamilton, both physicians of Chicago, Ill., are visiting with relatives in Lawrence and North Andover.

James Toohy of Stevens street, and a clerk at Sanborn and Robinson's hardware store in Lawrence starts next Monday on his vacation.

In spite of the unfavorable weather many local veterans gathered and donned their red shirts and have gone to take part in the muster.

The Misses Emma and Edith Ward of School street have returned home after spending a week with relatives in Marlboro and Crystal Spring.

Miss Agnes Donovan of Lynn is making a visit with relatives in town. She is a guest at the residence of Mrs.
MacDonaghy in Sutton street to remain for some time. She arrived on Tuesday.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County.

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J.
Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure.

FRANK J. CHENEY.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 9th day of December
A. D. 1880.

A. W. GLEASON,
Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, Etc.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Autumn.. Novelties

Buttrick Patterns FOR SEPTEMBER

Just received in our store, contain many novelties in Coats, Wraps, Wrappers, Shirt Waists and Skirts. A two-piece Skirt in a rainy-day effect will be much sought after. In Misses' and Children's Clothes, the new Strap or Suspender Dress is shown. Our Paper Pattern Department is always well stocked and well served. We invite the ladies of Andover to call.

SMITH & MANNING, 8 Essex Street

DRY PINE SLABS

SAWED ANY LENGTH,

$2.00 PER LOAD.

Also BIRCH WOOD Cut in Any Length to Suit.

F. E. GLEASON, Dealer in Wood, Coal, Hay and Straw.